Ancient and Indigenous Wisdom Traditions in African and Euro-Asian Contexts Ehaab Abdou, Theodore Zervas, 2024-08-01 This book brings attention to the understudied and often overlooked question of how curricula and classroom practices might inadvertently reproduce exclusionary discourses and narratives that omit or negate particular cultures histories and wisdom traditions With a focus on representations and classroom practices related especially to ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures it includes unique contributions from scholars studying these questions in various contexts The book offers a range of important studies from key African and Euro Asian contexts including Afghanistan Albania Greece Iran South Africa Sweden Turkey and Zimbabwe The various chapter contributions address and discuss nuances of each of the contexts under study The contributions also help highlight some key commonalities across these contexts including how dominant discourses and various forces have historically shaped and continue to shape and reproduce such omissions misrepresentations and marginalization In addition to seeking to reconcile with some of these ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures the book charts a path forward towards more holistic analytical frameworks as well as more inclusive and balanced representations and classroom practices in these aforementioned geographic contexts and beyond It will appeal to scholars researchers undergraduate and graduate students with interests in Indigenous education curriculum studies citizenship education history of education religion and educational policy

Religion and COVID-19 Vaccination in Zimbabwe Tenson Muyambo, Fortune Sibanda, Ezra Chitando, 2023-10-17 This book analyses the role of religion during the COVID 19 pandemic and vaccination rollout in Zimbabwe Zimbabwe was listed by the World Health Organization WHO as one of thirteen African countries to have fully vaccinated more than 10% of its population against COVID 19 by the end of September 2021 but the country fell far short of the government's own target for achieving 60% inoculation by December 2020 This book analyses whether religion played a role in explaining why the government's pro vaccine stance did not translate into high vaccination rates Drawing upon various religions including African indigenous religions Christianity and Islam the book considers how faith actors demonstrated vaccine acceptance resistance or hesitancy Zimbabwe offers a particularly interesting and varied case for analysis and the original research on display here will be an important contribution to wider debates on religion and COVID 19 This book will be useful to academics researchers and students studying religious studies sociology health and well being religion and development

Regime and Education in Zimbabwe Bekithemba Dube, Albert Mufanechiya, 2024-06-10 This collection focuses on the post independence educational development in Zimbabwe It shows how the ZANU PF regime has presided over the demise of education and covers a wide range of topics such as violence against teachers poor salaries student activism minority languages and curriculum innovations This volume argues that the regime has used education as a tool for repression Curriculum innovations introduced and implemented in Zimbabwe have little to do with improving the performance of the learners and more to do with stopping teachers from pushing the regime change agenda Consequently this has resulted in a nation in crisis marked with high turnover poor economy and mass exodus of teachers and learners The contributors to this volume make various suggestions which could recenter education towards addressing the experiences of the learners as opposed to being used as a tool to push repression and thwart democracy O-Level Syllabus Zimbabwe School Examinations Council (ZIMSEC), Zimbabwe General Certificate of Education (ZGCE), 2013 Effective Mentoring and Supervision for Best Practices Costain Tandi, Munyaradzi Mawere, Wilson Zivave, Pedzisai Goronga, Annah Moyo, 2025-07-17 This volume offers a profound exploration of mentorship within Zimbabwe's educational framework emphasising the crucial phase of work integrated learning It assembles the insights of distinguished educators researchers and practitioners committed to enhancing teacher training through effective mentorship and supervision Through thoughtfully crafted chapters the book examines best practices in mentorship underscoring the significance of robust teacher student relationships culturally responsive pedagogy teamwork and the synthesis of theoretical knowledge with practical application Each chapter delves into essential elements of effective supervision such as building trust providing constructive feedback and fostering an inclusive teaching learning environment that honours diverse cultural contexts The book provides valuable strategies to boost student engagement enhance instructional effectiveness and encourage reflective practice among emerging educators Additionally the volume presents innovative approaches for immersing trainee teachers in meaningful hands on experiences that connect classroom learning with real world application Featuring contributions from a diverse array of voices in the field this book serves as an indispensable resource for teacher trainees mentor teachers educational leaders and policymakers Its goal is to equip those involved in teacher training with the skills necessary to cultivate the next generation of educators thereby improving the quality of education throughout Zimbabwe More than a guide this volume is a clarion call for transformative mentorship that acknowledges the significant impact of effective supervision on the future of teaching and learning Power in Contemporary Zimbabwe Erasmus Masitera, Fortune Sibanda, 2018-04-20 In recent years the Zimbabwe crisis rendered the country and its citizens to be a typical case of failed states the world over Zimbabwean society was and is still confronted with different challenges which include political economic and social problems Attempts to overcome these challenges have thrown light on the power that rests within individuals and or groups to change and even revolutionize their localities communities states and ultimately the world at large Through experience individuals and groups have promoted ideas that have aided in changing mentalities attitudes and behaviors in societies at different levels This book
