cultural studies Serious Fun Ruth Yamamoto, 2016-11-09 The importance of play and fun to people's lives cannot be stressed enough in today's cultural climate of high stress, high stakes and competition. One activity that gains recognition and credibility as both fun and transformative is theatrical improvisation or improv. In this book, Ruth Yamamoto reviews her research on the influences of improvisation on community college students. Educators, theatre artists, improvisers or anyone interested in building community, developing self-awareness and affecting positive social change will want to read this book. Dr Yamamoto examines the principles of improvisation and the concepts of play and flow to add credibility to a craft and practice that is often viewed as frivolous and silly. Ruth Yamamoto extends her research through interviews with applied improvisation professionals, examples and suggestions of games and exercises and provides solid evidence of the serious positive benefits of improvisation.

Integrating Psychodrama and Systemic Constellation Work Karen Carnabucci, Ronald Anderson, 2011-10-01 Systemic Constellation Work is a rapidly growing experiential healing process that is being embraced by a variety of helping professionals worldwide. This book explores the history, principles and methodology of this approach and offers a detailed comparison with psychodrama, explaining how each method can enhance the other.

The Routledge Companion to Applied Performance Tim Prentki, Ananda Breed, 2020-12-30 The Routledge Companion to Applied Performance provides an in-depth, far-reaching and provocative consideration of how scholars and artists negotiate the theoretical, historical and practical politics of applied performance both in the academy and beyond. These volumes offer insights from within and beyond the sphere of English-speaking scholarship, curated by regional experts in applied performance. The reader will gain an understanding of some of the dominant preoccupations of performance in specified regions, enhanced by contextual framing. From the disarming of the human body through dance in Colombia to clowning with dementia in Australia, via challenges to violent nationalism in the Balkans, transgender performance in Pakistan and resistance rap in Kashmir, the essays, interviews and scripts are eloquent testimony to the courage and hope of people who believe in the power of art to renew the human spirit. Students, academics, practitioners, policy makers, cultural anthropologists and activists will benefit from the opportunities to forge new networks and develop in-depth comparative research offered by this bold global project.

Memory Marián Cao, Richard Hougham, Sarah Scoble, 2024-08-06 Memory is a compilation of scholarly chapters by authors of global reputation in the arts therapies. Ensemble! Jeff Katzman, M.D., Dan O'Connor, 2021-06-01 Drawing on a combined expertise in improvisational theatre and psychiatry author team Dan O Connor and Dr Jeff Katzman show readers how improv skills are the perfect antidote to loneliness and isolation I know what you re thinking Hold on improv Like getting on a stage in front of an audience What if that s not my thing Don t worry this isn t a book about becoming an improv theater expert and it s not really a book about performing It s a book about loneliness about our feelings of disconnection and isolation ones that we may have been experiencing since long before the pandemic More importantly it s a book about becoming unlonely by borrowing from the collaborative and creative tools of improv Authors of Life Unscripted Jeff Katzman a professor of psychiatry at the University of New Mexico and Dan O Connor multifaceted actor writer and director have created a process they call Ensembling that helps us build an ensemble of relationships in our lives and more deeply enjoy the groups we already belong to This is a process of becoming a little vulnerable with each other and of embracing the moment in which we find ourselves Drawing on concepts from narrative improvisational theatre and depth psychology the authors present us with the skills we need to connect with each other more actively and meaningfully To ensemble or not to ensemble that is not a question With the rise of loneliness and isolation in an increasingly virtually connected society we must find ways to come together We must ensemble

Storytelling and Improvisation as Anti-Racist Pedagogies Samuel Jaye Tanner, Erin T. Miller, 2024-04-16 This book theorizes and describes the concept of transformative critical whiteness pedagogies that are rooted in theories and practices of improvisation It shows how these pedagogies invite people especially white people into the urgent work of resisting the ongoing production and affirmation of white supremacy Using the frameworks of storytelling and story analysis this book uses narrative to invite the reader into ongoing work to design and make sense of teaching and learning about whiteness that would meaningfully account for a grapple with white supremacy Chapter 1 offers the conceptual framework rooted in theories and practices of improvisation that allow for new ways to think about engaging whiteness in anti racist pedagogies which the authors name transformative critical whiteness pedagogies Chapters 2 4 tell and analyze the stories that emerged out of this work to design and facilitate transformative critical whiteness pedagogies with white elementary students white college students and then black elementary students in the US Chapters 5 and 6 discuss the challenges of developing and implementing transformative critical whiteness pedagogies in K 12 contexts The final chapters offer a discussion of the improvisational ethos as well as an overview of the authors ongoing work to engage people especially white people in getting smarter about whiteness Using simple straightforward language to address complex ideas about anti racist pedagogies this volume will be important reading for pre service teachers and teacher educators in Critical Whiteness Studies Critical Multicultural Education Social Foundations of Education Elementary Education and Race and Culture Studies
