

Gifts from the Sea

Introduction to The Sand Horse and Beach Detective

The beach: waves plunging, galloping and tossing spray. Seagulls gliding and whirling. There's a lot going on where the sea meets the land...

The water's edge

Have you ever made something out of sand in a sandpit or on a beach, then poured water over it? What happens? The sand crumbles and collapses leaving you with what you started with – a pile of sand.

The sea sweeps the beach clean by carrying things away on its waves. It can also wash away sandcastles and footprints.

The sea can bring us things too. It brings shells, seaweed or even rubbish. You can read about the unusual things that the sea brings us later on in Beach Detective.

In this section you are going to read about what happens to a horse made out of sand.
