questions Glossary of difficult vocabulary Recommended for older readers Back cover Focus On: 100 Most Popular Nonlinear Narrative Films Wikipedia contributors, Slumdog Millionaire Paul Shipton, 2010 Slumdog Millionaire is the story of a young boy from the streets of Mumbai who wins the popular quiz show Who Wants to be a Millionaire This book also contains a fact file section which provides information on making the story into a film the country of India and the lives of street children Teaching Transnational Cinema Katarzyna Marciniak, Bruce Bennett, 2016-03-10 This collection of essays offers a pioneering analysis of the political and conceptual complexities of teaching transnational cinema in university classrooms around the world In their exploration of a wide range of films from different national and regional contexts contributors reflect on the practical and pedagogical challenges of teaching about immigrant identities transnational encounters foreignness cosmopolitanism and citizenship terrorism border politics legality and race Probing the value of cinema in interdisciplinary academic study and the changing strategies and philosophies of teaching in the university this volume positions itself at the cutting edge of transnational film studies Historical Dictionary of British Cinema Alan Burton, Steve Chibnall, 2013-07-11 British cinema has been around from the very birth of motion pictures from black and white to color from talkies to sound and now 3D it has been making a major contribution to world cinema Many of its actors and directors have stayed at home but others ventured abroad like Charlie Chaplin and Alfred Hitchcock Today it is still going strong the only real competition to Hollywood turning out films which appeal not only to Brits just think of Bridget Jones while busily adding to franchises like James Bond and Harry Potter So this Historical Dictionary of British Cinema has a lot of ground to cover This it does with over 300 dictionary entries informing us about significant actors producers and directors outstanding films and serials organizations and studios different films genres from comedy to horror and memorable films among other things Two appendixes provide lists of award winners Meanwhile the chronology covers over a century of history These parts provide the details countless details while the introduction offers the big story And the extensive bibliography points toward other sources of information Slums on Screen Igor Krstic, 2016-04-08 Near to one billion people call slums their home making it a reasonable claim to describe our world as a planet of slums But how has this hard and unyielding way of life been depicted on screen How have filmmakers engaged historically and across the globe with the social conditions of what is often perceived as the world's most miserable habitats Combining approaches from cultural globalisation and film studies Igor Krstic outlines a transnational history of films that either document or fictionalise the favelas shantytowns barrios populares or chawls of our planet of slums exploring the way accelerated urbanisation has intersected with an increasingly interconnected global film culture From Jacob Riis How The Other Half Lives 1890 to Danny Boyle's Slumdog Millionaire 2008 the volume provides a number of close readings of films from different historical periods and regions to outline how contemporary film and media practices relate to their past predecessors demonstrating the way various filmmakers both north and south of the equator have repeatedly grappled with rejected or continuously modified documentary and realist modes to convey life in our planet of slums

The Cultural Industries of India Rohit K. Dasgupta, Clelia Clini, 2024-05-14 The Cultural Industries of India is the first book length study dedicated to the Indian cultural and creative industries By covering specific aspects of the cultural and creative sectors in India from film festivals to music and performing arts from cinema to tourism including a policy review on innovation in the creative industries the various chapters offer a comprehensive overview of the relationship between the cultural and creative industries and the wider economic social cultural and political processes taking place within India and its diaspora The study of cultural and creative industries in India is important not only for their potential for economic growth and its knock on effect on social and cultural development but also because their analysis reveal the ways in which cultural production shapes politics and identities income generation and urban renewal This volume focuses on questions of structural inequalities within the sector at the local level and to account for asymmetries in economic power and the possibility to circulate and access symbolic content within and beyond the boundaries of the Indian nation This book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of creative and cultural studies economics history development studies and media studies in India The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Cultural Trends

Terrains of Consciousness Zeno Ackermann, Isabel Karremann, Simi Malhotra, Nishat Zaidi, 2021-10-01 TERRAINS OF CONSCIOUSNESS emerges from an Indian German Swiss research collaboration The book makes a case for a phenomenology of globalization that pays attention to locally situated socioeconomic terrains everyday practices and cultures of knowledge This is exemplified in relation to three topics the tension between terrain and territory in Defoe's Robinson Crusoe as a pioneering work of the globalist mentality chapter 1 the relationship between established conceptions of feminism and the concrete struggles of women in India since the 19th century chapter 2 the exploration of urban space and urban life in writings on India's capital from Ahmed Ali to Arundhati Roy chapter 3

World Cinema, Theology, and the Human Antonio D. Sison, 2012 Forging an open minded but reasoned dialogue between nine acclaimed titles of world cinema and a range of theological perspectives that touch on the theme of human experience World Cinema Theology and the Human offers fresh portals of insight for the interdisciplinary area of Theology and Film In Sison's approach it is the cinematic representation of vivid humanity not necessarily propositional statements about God and religion that lays down a bridge to a conversation with theology Thus the book's project is to look for the divine presence written not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts depicted on screen by way of audiovisual language Seeking to redress the interdiscipline's narrow predilection for Hollywood blockbusters the book casts its net wider to include a culturally diverse selection of case studies from festival gems such as Singapore's Be With Me and South Africa's Yesterday to widely acclaimed sleeper hits such as Britain's Slumdog Millionaire and New Zealand's Whale Rider The book will appeal to scholars of theology and religious cultural studies interested in the Theology Religion Film interface and because of its commitment to an examination of film qua film a
