Small Steps Louis Sachar, 2010-07-23 Two years after being released from Camp Green Lake, Armpit is home in Austin, Texas, trying to turn his life around. But it's hard when you have a record and everyone expects the worst from you. The only person who believes in him is Ginny, his 10-year-old disabled neighbour. Together they are learning to take small steps. And he seems to be on the right path until X-Ray, a buddy from Camp Green Lake, comes up with a get-rich-quick scheme. This leads to a chance encounter with teen pop sensation Kaira DeLeon, and suddenly his life spins out of control with only one thing for certain: He'll never be the same again. In his first major novel since Holes, critically acclaimed novelist Louis Sachar uses his signature wit combined with a unique blend of adventure and deeply felt characters to explore issues of race, the nature of celebrity, the invisible connections that determine a person's life, and what it takes to stay on course. Doing the right thing is never a wrong choice, but a small step in the right direction. A Guide for Using Criss Cross in the Classroom Melissa Hart, 2007-02-12 Teaching literature unit based on the popular children's story Criss Cross.

American children access to white schools but more than this as school stories they also comment upon how structural racism operates in the classroom and mutates over the course of decades through the pedagogical practices depicted in literature for young readers Lesley combines approaches from critical race theory disability studies and educational philosophy in order to investigate how the educational market simultaneously constrains how racism in schools can be presented to young readers and also provides channels for radical critiques of pedagogy and visions of alternative systems The volume examines a range of titles from novels that directly engage the Brown v Board of Education decision such as Sharon Draper s Fire From the Rock and Dorothy Sterling s Mary Jane to novels that engage less obvious legacies of desegregation such as Cynthia Voigt s Dacey s Song Sharon Flake s Pinned Virginia Hamilton s The Planet of Junior Brown and Louis Sachar s Holes This book will be of interest to scholars of American studies children s literature and educational philosophy and history
