Annual Report of the South African Police Service South African Police Service, 2001 Policing and Human Rights
Amanda Dissel, Cheryl Frank, 2012 Security, Governance, and State Fragility in South Africa Edward L. Mienie, 2020-03-06

Do existing measures of state fragility measure fragility accurately Based on commonly used fragility measures South Africa SA is classified as a relatively stable state yet rising violent crime high unemployment endemic poverty eroding public trust identity group based preferential treatment policies and the rapid rise of the private security sector are all indications that SA may be suffering from latent state fragility Based on a comprehensive view of security this study examines the extent to which measures of political legitimacy and good governance effectiveness in the security system especially with respect to the police system and mounting economic challenges may be undermining the stability of SA in ways undetected by commonly used measures of state fragility Using a mixed methods approach based on quantitative secondary data analysis and semi structured interviews with government officials security practitioners and leading experts in the field this study finds that the combination of colonization apartheid liberation struggle transition from autocracy to democracy high levels of direct and structural violence stagnating social political and economic developments make South Africa a latently fragile state Conceptually the results of this research call into question the validity of commonly used measures of state fragility and suggest the need for a more comprehensive approach to assessing state fragility Practically this study offers a number of concrete policy recommendations for how South Africa may address mounting levels of latent state fragility

Report of the Commissioner of the South African Police South African Police, 1918 Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerman, 2020-04-29

Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country's apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country's people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations

The Impact of the United Nations Human Rights Treaties on the Domestic Level Christof Heyns, Frans Viljoen, 2021-08-04 The six main United Nations human rights treaties enjoy almost universal ratification today Almost 80 per cent of the possible ratifications have been made and every Member State of the UN has ratified at least one of these treaties The nearly universal acceptance of the treaties on the formal level however does not automatically translate into the norms contained in these documents being made a reality in the lives of the billions of people living in these countries The treaty system is notoriously weak in terms of international enforcement and there is a general suspicion that it has had little impact at the domestic level Mechanisms to improve the international enforcement mechanisms of the six main treaties have been a topic of discussion and research for many years but the domestic impact of the treaties has never been investigated in a systematic and comprehensive manner This book constitutes the most ambitious attempt so far to establish the impact of the treaties at the domestic level The following treaties in 20 United Nations Member States are investigated the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination the Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights the Covenant on Civil and Political Rights the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women the Convention Against Torture and the Convention on the Rights of the Child This book reflects the findings of 20 researchers based in the countries investigated under the leadership of Professors Christof Heyns and Frans Viljoen of the Centre for Human Rights University of Pretoria in a study done in co operation with the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights The influence of the treaties in each of the 20 countries is investigated in respect of its influence on the continuation legislation court cases policies and practices and the impact of the treaty system in civil society In an overview chapter by the study leaders based on a comparison of the available data common trends and patterns are identified and recommendations about reforms on the national and international level are made This is a book that should be read by all those interested in the development of the international human rights system

Community Policing Mike Brogden, Preeti Nijhar, 2013-01-11 This book provides a critical analysis of concept of community policing worldwide assessing evidence for its effectiveness and highlighting the often inappropriate export of community policing models to failed and transitional societies Challenges of Policing Democracies Dilip Das, Marenin Otwin, 2012-10-12 In this text the editors analyze the diverse situations that police forces operate under and the challenges that they face in different kinds of democracies This cross cultural comparison of various systems highlights the universal observation that police are an anomaly in a democracy and explores how various influences for example large scale social violence a zeal for crime fighting and vulnerability to temptation often find police incapable of behaving in a democratic manner Challenges of Policing Democracies goes beyond just showing the similarities and differences of the policing challenges democratic societies face it also examines the responses and remedies adopted by police in various countries at different levels of democratic achievement and how every society struggles with the challenges of preserving democratic values without sacrificing the effectiveness of policing Leo's Guide to Not Becoming a Statistic Leo Prinsloo, 2021-09-27 If this book saves just one person's life Leo Prinsloo will be happy Leo became a worldwide internet sensation after footage of his reaction to an attempted high value goods in transit heist went viral Stunned by his cool attitude and focused action in a crisis situation South Africans had an example of what can happen when good people take a stand With decades of experience in security first as a policeman then in the South African Police Service's Special Task Force and now providing arms handling and security training in the private sector Leo has a wealth of knowledge on how to manage life threatening incidents Driven by a desire to empower South Africans and help them claim back their sense of safety he offers advice for dealing with every risky situation from how to handle hijackings and road rage to how to keep your children safe to the best way to secure your home and business He also provides comprehensive information about handling firearms and basic first aid Leo's Guide to Not Becoming a Statistic is a guide to living your safest life in South Africa something which has become increasingly important as our crime statistics continue to rise Straight talking and honest much like Leo himself it is an easy to use manual that makes keeping safe accessible with relatable information and easy to implement tips Leo says that taking the first step towards securing your safety is the most important and his book will help you take that step Policing Diversity Andrew Faull, 2008 The shift from apartheid to a constitutional democracy in South Africa brought with it a plethora of questions concerning ideas of nationhood citizenship and organisational transformation Integrally caught up in the revolution the South African Police Service SAPS faced transformative challenges on scales far larger than most other organisations in the country From being the strong arm of the oppressive elite it has had to restructure and rearticulate its function while simultaneously attempting to maintain law and order Like many other corporations and organisations the SAPS has engaged in interventions aimed at aiding the fluidity of this process Andrew Faull's thesis is an analysis of one such intervention focusing on SAPS members at one particular station It attempts to ascertain the extent to which members are changing as a result of particular diversity workshops conducted in a region of the Western Cape This work brings together an under examined intersection of diversity and police cultural theory in South Africa emphasizing the need for greater attention to these issues The project of Student Publications has been designed by SAVUSA NiZA and SANPAD to try and stimulate publication in the Netherlands of excellent South African MA theses on relevant Southern African themes Page 4 of cover Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs Appropriations for 2006 United States. K9 Cops Nigel Allsopp, 2012-03-15 In this fascinating book Nigel Allsopp lifts the lid on the world of police dogs examining the vital roles they play both in Australia and around the world Despite the numerous high tech devices now available to law enforcement officials K9 s as they re known in the trade remain an indispensable part of police work in a range of fields notably terrorism and border protection K9s may sometimes be sent into difficult and dangerous situations but this is never done without care and concern for at the heart of their role is the intimate and symbiotic relationship between dog and handler K9 Cops explores the history training and current use of police dogs as well as considering what future dogs have in modern law enforcement It also includes an A Z of police canine units in 47 countries For all police and military personnel K9 Cops is an informative must read book For the rest of us it is an entertaining and heart warming account that dog lovers the world over will enjoy Policing and Human Rights Julia Hornberger, 2011-10-21 Policing and Human Rights analyses the implementation of human rights standards tracing them from the nodal points of their production in Geneva through the board rooms of national police management and training facilities to the streets of downtown Johannesburg This book deals with how the unprecedented influence of human rights combined with the inability by police officers to live up to international standards has created a range of policing and human rights vernaculars hybrid discourses that have appropriated transmogrified and undercut human rights Understood as an attempt by police officers as much as by the police as a whole to recover a position from which to act and to judge these vernaculars reveal the compromised ways in which human rights are and are not implemented Tracing how in South Africa human rights have given rise to new forms of popular justice informal private policing and provisional security arrangements Policing and Human Rights delivers an important analysis of how the dissemination and implementation of human rights intersects with the post colonial and post transformation circumstances that characterise many countries in the South Police Work and Identity Andrew Faull, 2017-09-07 This is a book about the men and women who police contemporary South Africa Drawing on rich original ethnographical data it considers how officers make sense of their jobs and how they find meaning in their duties It demonstrates that the dynamics that lead to police abuses and scandals in transitional and neo liberalising regimes such as South Africa can be traced to the day to day experiences and ambitions of the average police officer It is about the stories they tell themselves about themselves and their social worlds and how these shape the order they produce through their work By focusing on police officers this book positions the individual in primacy over the organisation asking what policing looks like when motivated by the pursuit of ontological security in precarious contexts It acknowledges but downplays the importance of police culture in determining officers attitudes and behaviour and reminds readers that most officers lives are entangled in and shaped by a range of social political and cultural forces It suggests that a job in the South African Police Service SAPS is primarily just that a job Most officers join the organisation after other dreams have slipped beyond reach their presence in the Service being almost accidental But once employed they re write their self narratives and enact carefully choreographed performances to ease managerial and public pressure and to rationalize their coercive practices In an era where evidence and what works reigns supreme and where cop culture is often deemed a primary socializing force this book emphasises how officers personal histories ambitions and vulnerabilities remain central to how policing unfolds on the street The A to Z of Careers in South Africa ,2006 The National Agricultural Directory 2011 ,2010 Working With Warriors Dennis Martin,2008-10-10 The story of three of the world s hardest streetfighters DAILY SPORT One night in the early 1970s three young bouncers worked together at a Liverpool nightclub Terry O Neill went on to become the greatest karate expert Britain has ever produced Gary Spiers was the deadliest streetfighter alive and Dennis Martin is now the UK s leading expert on close protection and bodyguarding This is the story of these three martial arts masters and how they transformed both the practice of personal combat and the security industry It follows in vivid detail the dangerous violent path they walked and the many characters they met on the way Martin spent his entire adult life involved in frontline security working on the nightclub doors in Liverpool protecting VIPs all over the world then training bodyguards and other security professionals He is also a widely published writer with articles appearing in Black Belt Soldier of Fortune SWAT and Combat while his regular column in Fighting Arts International is widely accepted as being the impetus behind reality based self protection Dennis Martin is the most credible instructor of real self defence in the world today Geoff Thompson author of Watch My Back Gender Inclusive Policing Tim Prenzler,2023-06-23 Gender Inclusive Policing Challenges and Achievements is an edited collection focused on current challenges innovations and positive achievements in gender integration in policing in different subject domains and locations Comprised of essays by expert contributors from across the globe the book covers a variety of topics including jurisdictional achievements South Africa British Isles Scandinavian countries Australia women in leadership achievements and methods merit and affirmative action issues performance comparisons conduct ethics peacebuilding intersectionality Indigenous women and women s police stations Argentina The book explores and grapples with issues of recruitment deployment and promotion obstacles to equity effective integration strategies management conduct and policing styles race and ethnicity and specialisation It is an essential resource providing practical exemplars for police managers involved in gender equity programmes and for professionals involved in advanced level research teaching and consulting Corruption and the South African Police Service Andrew Faull,2007
