Finance, Governance and Economic Performance in Pacific and South East Asia David G. Dickinson, J.L. Ford, the late M.J. Fry, Andrew W. Mullineux, S. Sen, 2000-01-01 this is an interesting and valuable collection of papers that addresses a highly topical area of research The quality of writing is high in the main and the econometric methodology and models transparent The appendices to many of the empirical chapters provide detailed information about data sources as well as model results The book should be required reading for researchers and graduate students in this field and the review papers provide valuable teaching material It will be especially useful for those concerned with the contribution of governance structures to economic performance financial crises and the still disputed relationship between growth and financial liberalization Jenifer Piesse Asia Pacific Business Review Finance Governance and Economic Performance in Pacific and South East Asia focuses on key aspects of government policy financial systems and their links to the economic miracle in Pacific and South East Asia It also considers the financial crises that have affected those economies and their economic progress The contributors examine the success of governance in the form of government involvement with the macroeconomy and with the deregulation of markets in general Attention is drawn not only to the need for further liberalisation but also the need to introduce regulatory structures to produce orderly markets Hearings on Military

Posture and Legislation to Authorize Appropriations During the Fiscal Year 1970 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Armed Services, 1969 The British Official Film in South-East Asia Ian Aitken, 2016-11-22 This book explores the ways in which the British official film was used in Malaya Malaysia Singapore and Hong Kong from 1945 to the 1970s Aitken uncovers how the British official film and British official information agencies adapted to the epochal contexts of the Cold War and end of empire In addition to an extensive introduction which touches on a number of critical issues related to the post war British official film the book provides an account of how the tradition of film making associated with the British documentary film movement spread into the region during the post war period and how that tradition was contested by a Colonial Office tradition of film making The volume concludes by covering the rise of television in the region within the context of developing post colonial authoritarian states in Singapore and Malaysia and the continuation of colonial authoritarianism in Hong Kong Hearings United States. Congress. House. Committee on Armed Services, 1969

International Joint Venture Performance in South East Asia Craig C. Julian, 2005-01-01 This is a welcome addition to the body of work on IJV performance The emphasis on marketing and on S E Asia is particularly timely Paul Beamish University of Western Ontario Canada Craig Julian argues that the International Joint Venture IJV phenomena represents two opposing trends On the one hand an analysis of the number of new IJVs reveals that they are becoming increasingly popular as a mode of overseas market entry and expansion On the other hand however the significance of a robust growth trend is overshadowed by the incidence of high failure The book examines the factors influencing the marketing performance of IJVs in South East Asia including market characteristics conflict commitment product characteristics marketing orientation control trust partner s contributions and partner s needs Hearings Before and Special Reports Made by Committee on Armed Services of the House of Representatives on Subjects Affecting the Naval and Military Establishments ,1969

Tactical Reconnaissance in the Cold War Doug Gordon,2005-11-19 The little known stories of the United States Air Force pilots who flew alone and unarmed into enemy territory in a world under threat of nuclear war Tactical Reconnaissance in the Cold War describes how the United States Air Force tactical reconnaissance units operated from the end of World War II until the 1970s This was an immensely active period that also included major conflicts in Korea and Vietnam It was also a period of rapid technological development in aircraft and photographic techniques This highly illustrated book includes chapters on the post war period in Europe and the East the Korean Conflict and the role of the 67th TRW from 1950 to 1954 the role of the highly secret RF 86 missions over Red China and the Soviet Far East in the early to mid 50s the RB 57A missions out of Bitburg and Yokota flying clandestinely over the Soviet Union and the RF 100A missions that were flown over the Soviet Union from Turkey Rhine Main and Yokota United States Air Forces in Europe the Cuban Missile Crisis and the role of the RF 101 Voodoos and RB 66s PROSEA : Plant Resources of South-East Asia 11, Auxiliary Plants ,
