Working en comunidad Elena Foulis, Stacey Alex, Glenn A. Martínez, 2024-09-10 Working in community is critical to several fields Working en comunidad focuses on service learning and Latina/o communities within a variety of institutional contexts It provides a practical framework grounded in theoretical approaches that center Latina/o experiences as foundational to understanding how to prepare students to work in the community and en comunidad The volume tackles three major themes ethical approaches to working with Latina o e communities within language courses and beyond preparing Latina o e students for working with their own communities in different environments and ensuring equitable practices and building relationships that are mutually beneficial for students and community members The editors forward two central arguments 1 Equitable community engagement in higher education is a reflective and reciprocal process that develops empathy and personal and professional growth in students and 2 service learning is most transformative when it explicitly guides students and the community to build cultural humility and recognize Latina o e experiences and agency as foundational to the learning process Many of the contributors and editors are Latina o e identified scholars practitioners and researchers who lend a rich body of experience and a personal dedication to this work They present distinct approaches and geographies as well as range of institutions to offer a wide scope of engaged work that builds on the concept of comunidad to advance a critical new conceptual framework of equitable education and racial justice Contributors Stacey Alex Elena Foulis Christina Garc a Catherine Komisaruk Kelly Lowther Pereira Glenn Mart nez Mar a Luisa Parra Velasco
