The Politics of Incompetence Neriko Musha Doerr, 2024-06-25

Incompetence is not an objective state lacking competence nor a kind of deficiency that needs to be filled Rather it is a constructed state that is productive working in tandem with its opposite competence Perception of incompetence competence works as what Michel Foucault 1977 calls a technology of normalization that pushes individuals to aspire to follow a shared norm while hierarchically differentiating individuals according to their proximity to the aspired norm The notion of incompetence is thus productive in that it turns individuals into specific kinds of subjects Foucault 1977

The Politics of Incompetence Learning Language Relations of Power and Daily Resistance further investigates other productive processes around the perception of incompetence specifically through its intersections with various ideologies academic achievement teacher student hierarchy native speaker ideology normative unit thinking and privilege of vulnerability as such intersections generate new knowledge new reflection on one s assumptions and privilege new space for marginalized language and more This volume opens up a new area of study productive cultural politics of incompetence by focusing on language learning in diverse contexts Japanese as a Foreign Language classrooms in US colleges Italian language tourism in Italy and indigenous M ori language revitalization at an Aotearoa New Zealand school
