Workplace Law Handbook 2011 - Health and Safety, Premises and Environment Handbook ,2010 Making Buildings Inclusive and Accessible 2009: Special Report , Enlighten David McNair,Richard Pollock,Colm Cunningham,2017-01-01 Older people need about twice as much light as younger people to accomplish everyday tasks comfortably and the need is even greater for people with dementia Light and lighting that promotes health and independence doesn't just happen It needs to be designed with awareness of the specific needs of older people and people with dementia With many nations experiencing rapidly ageing populations and nearly 50 million people globally living with dementia improving lighting design and access to natural light is a simple way to make a world of difference to their quality of life Enlighten Lighting for older people and people with dementia provides general insights for a broad readership recommendations for care professionals and detailed technical information for engineers architects and designers responsible for new buildings refurbishments and alterations Enlighten explains how much light is enough why access to natural light benefits health and how contrast colour and reflection can hinder or support us in making sense of our world The three authors have decades of experience across lighting engineering building design and dementia care ensuring that Enlighten is a go to resource for creating dementia inclusive environments that improve quality of life and increase independence

Integrated Sustainable Design of Buildings Paul Appleby,2012-10-12 Integrated Sustainable Design of Buildings aims to provide a guide to members of design and masterplanning teams on how to deliver sustainable development and buildings cost effectively meeting current and emerging UK and international statutory and planning requirements Using a series of case histories and examples from the author's ten years of providing sustainability advisory services the book sets out a clear and understandable strategy that deals with all aspects of sustainable design and construction and the implications for delivery costs saleability and long term operation The extensive scope includes all aspects of environmental social and economic sustainability including strategies to reduce carbon emissions and the impact of climate change Integrated Sustainable Design of Buildings appeared in the Cambridge Top 40 Sustainability Books of 2010

Human Factors in Lighting, Third Edition Peter Robert Boyce, 2014-04-07 The availability of electric lighting has changed the lives of people the world over yet as a major user of electricity it has come under increasing scrutiny in recent years This scrutiny has focused largely on the environmental consequences with little consideration of the benefits of lighting Human Factors in Lighting Third Edition restores some balance to the discussion by examining the ways in which people interact with lighting These interactions influence the ability to perform visual tasks the perception of people objects and spaces human comfort and behavior as well as human health and safety It is only by understanding how to use light to achieve these ends that lighting can be provided effectively and efficiently to the benefit of all See What's New in the Third Edition New chapters on the non image forming system lighting for pedestrians light pollution and lighting and electricity use Revision of all other chapters to update them to take into account the advances that have been made in our understanding of the effects of light on people over the last decade Integration of the combined effects of light via the visual and non image forming systems on performance and perception The book covers both the visual and the non visual effects of light on people as well as the benefits of lighting and the costs it imposes on the environment It details the consequences of exposure to lighting or lighting technology and the role of exposure to light on such basic functions of the body as circadian rhythms The author combines information from many different sources and integrates them into a coherent overview of lighting practice that can be used to develop better lighting solutions at a lower environmental cost The Essential

Guide to Retail Lighting Cosmin Ticleanu, P. J. Littlefair, Gareth Howlett, 2013 This guide reviews current practice in retail lighting and gives advice on achieving energy savings for retailers architects and designers including practical guidance on refurbishing existing lighting systems and developing new lighting solutions Offshore Electrical Engineering Manual

Geoff MacAngus-Gerrard, 2017-11-06 Offshore Electrical Engineering Manual Second Edition is for electrical engineers working on offshore projects who require detailed knowledge of an array of equipment and power distribution systems The book begins with coverage of different types of insulation hot spot temperatures temperature rise ambient air temperatures basis of machine ratings method of measurement of temperature rise by resistance measurement of ambient air temperature This is followed by coverage of AC generators automatic voltage regulators AC switchgear transformers and programmable electronic systems The emphasis throughout is on practical ready to apply techniques that yield immediate and cost effective benefits The majority of the systems covered in the book operate at a nominal voltage of 24 V dc and although it is not necessary for each of the systems to have separate battery and battery charger systems the grouping criteria require more detailed discussion The book also provides information on equipment such as dual chargers and batteries for certain vital systems switchgear tripping closing and engine start batteries which are dedicated to the equipment they supply In the case of engines which drive fire pumps duplicate charges and batteries are also required Packed with charts tables and diagrams this work is intended to be of interest to both technical readers and to general readers It covers electrical engineering in offshore situations with much of the information gained in the North Sea Some topics covered are offshore power requirements generator selection process drivers and starting requirements control and monitoring systems and cabling and equipment installation Discusses how to perform inspections of electrical and instrument systems on equipment using appropriate regulations and specifications Explains how to ensure electrical systems components are maintained and production is uninterrupted Demonstrates how to repair modify and install electrical instruments ensuring compliance with current regulations and specifications Covers specification management and technical evaluation of offshore electrical system design Features evaluation and optimization of electrical system options including DC AC selection and offshore cabling designs

Building Services Design for Energy Efficient Buildings Paul Tymkow,Savvas Tassou,Maria Kolokotroni,Hussam Jouhara,2020-07-12 The role and influence of building services engineers are undergoing rapid change and are pivotal to achieving low carbon buildings However textbooks in the field have tended to remain fairly traditional with a detailed focus on the technicalities of heating ventilation and air conditioning HVAC systems often with little wider context This book addresses that need by embracing a contemporary understanding of the urgent challenge to address climate change together with practical approaches to energy efficiency and carbon mitigation for mechanical and electrical systems in a concise manner The essential conceptual design issues for planning the principal building services systems that influence energy efficiency are examined in detail These are HVAC and electrical systems In addition the following issues are addressed background issues on climate change whole life performance and design collaboration generic strategies for energy efficient low carbon design health and wellbeing and post occupancy evaluation building ventilation air conditioning and HVAC system selection thermal energy generation and distribution systems low energy approaches for thermal control electrical systems data collection controls and monitoring building thermal load assessment building electric power load assessment space planning and design integration with other disciplines In order to deliver buildings that help mitigate climate change impacts a new perspective is required for building services engineers from the initial conceptual design and throughout the design collaboration with other disciplines This book provides a contemporary introduction and guide to this new approach for students and practitioners alike

Interdisciplinary Design Hanif Kara,2022-03-07 Architects and engineers both claim to be designers though how they define design and the approaches they use to realize it vary widely However their interaction has also created some of the world s most memorable enduring and impressive buildings The unprecedented impact of digital technologies illuminates the complexity and non linearity of the process that these designers go through while massively expanding both the ability to visualize and represent forms and to analyze their structural behavior It has obviously changed both architecture and engineering and so also the potential for interaction between them

Interdisciplinary Design began as a course at Harvard GSD attended by graduate students in architecture and also by MIT graduate students in structural engineering and computation In this course students and instructors examined a series of built projects in order to develop new viewpoints and communication across disciplinary boundaries in teaching practice and construction

Textbook of Hospital Administration Sonu Dr Goel,2013-12-31 This work ushers in a change in the approach of books on hospital administration To make the text interesting authors have used the case based learning approach Apart from this many new topics have been introduced in this book which had not been addressed so far in the available books For example due importance has been given to the role of engineering department in ensuring provision of good quality of medical care by the hospitals New concepts in hospital administration like information therapy use of information and communication technology health promoting hospital approach impact of globalization on hospital care etc have also introduced through this book USP of the book is giving due importance to the feedback from experienced hospital administrators across public and private hospitals of country This book will surely be of use to medical superintendents and hospital administrators in government and private hospitals in India and other countries Students as well as teachers of various courses namely regular and distant learning courses of MBA in Health Care Hospital Administration Diploma of masters in Hospital Administrator MD in hospital administrator MD in community medicine Diploma masters in laws master s in public health will also find this book of immense value This book will also be helpful for civil surgeons and senior medical officers of state health services The book comprehensively consolidates a lot of practical aspects by incorporating plenty of illustrations photographs case studies real life situations etc which will help the readers to get a realistic practical experience

Salient Features New concepts in hospital administration like use of information and communication technology health promoting hospital approach impact of globalization on hospital care role of engineering department and information therapy etc have been introduced Case Studies presented in the chapters are useful for case based learning approach

Comprehensively consolidates a lot of practical aspects by incorporating plenty of Flowcharts Figures and Tables help the readers to get a realistic practical experience

An Occupational Therapist's Guide to Sleep and Sleep Problems Andrew Green,Cary Brown,2015-02-21 Written by and for occupational therapists this comprehensive book is the ultimate guide to sleep and sleep disorders With detailed explanations of sleep theory and research and recommendations for interventions this book contains everything that occupational therapists need to know for effective treatment for patients with sleep problems

Handbook of Human Factors and Ergonomics Gavriel Salvendy,2012-03-13 The fourth edition of the Handbook of Human Factors and Ergonomics has been completely revised and updated This includes all existing third edition chapters plus new chapters written to cover new areas These include the following subjects Managing low back disorder risk in the workplace Online interactivity Neuroergonomics Office ergonomics Social networking HF E in motor vehicle transportation User requirements Human factors and ergonomics in aviation Human factors in ambient intelligent environments As with the earlier editions the main purpose of this handbook is to serve the needs of the human factors and ergonomics researchers practitioners and graduate students Each chapter has a strong theory and scientific base but is heavily focused on real world applications As such a significant number of case studies examples figures and tables are included to aid in the understanding and application of the material covered

The Human and Social Dimension of Urban Lightscapes Daria Casciani, 2020-11-02 This book explores new criteria and characteristics for integrating human psychology in the design of modern urban lighting It identifies a new area of lighting design research and practice that focuses on the nocturnal urban experience in terms of people's emotional cognitive and motivational perceptions to achieve more accessible sociable and sustainable cities In turn the book compares new tools and research methodologies for tackling complex issues concerning the ties between lighting people and the city Moreover it presents a series of case studies to provide an in depth understanding of the influence of urban lighting in terms of luminous atmosphere perception positive social affect social enhancement accessibility and hospitability Lastly the book proposes a multidisciplinary qualitative and quantitative methodology for assessing the spatial experience of outdoor lighting

Unlocking the Potential of Building Envelopes Andrea Giovanni Mainini, Tiziana Poli, Alberto Speroni, Matteo Cavaglià, Juan Diego Blanco Cadena, 2024-12-07 This book delves into the performance based design approach highlighting the necessity for bespoke adaptive and cognitive building envelopes that promote sustainable and positive behaviours throughout their lifecycle A key to unlock the building envelope's potential is the integration of advanced digital tools such as building information modelling BIM and digital twin technology which enable accurate simulation and optimization of energy efficiency decarbonization and human centric design aspects Moreover the work emphasizes the importance of a user centred approach in designing interactive and connected building envelopes thereby fostering sustainable behaviours among occupants This focus on user engagement and education in optimizing building envelope utilization not only contributes to reducing the environmental impact but also enhances the quality of life well being and health of occupants In the era of digital and ecological transition the book serves as an essential guide to design and operate energy efficient responsive and user friendly building envelopes paving the way for a future where the built environment is a significant contributor to sustainability and human health
