Carol Shields's The Stone Diaries Abby Werlock, 2001-09-01 Continuum Contemporaries will be a wonderful source of ideas and inspiration for members of book clubs and readings groups as well as for literature students. The aim of the series is to give readers accessible and informative introductions to 30 of the most popular, most acclaimed, and most influential novels of recent years. A team of contemporary fiction scholars from both sides of the Atlantic has been assembled to provide a thorough and readable analysis of each of the novels in question. The books in the series will all follow the same structure: a biography of the novelist including other works, influences, and in some cases an interview; a full-length study of the novel drawing out the most important themes and ideas; a summary of how the novel was received upon publication; a summary of how the novel has performed since publication, including film or TV adaptations, literary prizes, etc.; a wide range of suggestions for further reading, including websites and discussion forums; and a list of questions for reading groups to discuss.

Beyond Nostalgia Ruth E. Ray, 2000 For three years Ruth E Ray visited and participated in eight writing groups at six senior centers in inner city and suburban Detroit looking for ways in which the elderly fashion their memories through personal narrative Her innovative book involves the reader in the construction of life stories as a richly rewarding and highly social process that often reveals the types of relationships that dominate the lives of group members the majority of whom are women Because Ray wrote and responded herself and shares her anxiety and triumph in presenting her writing to women old enough to be her mother some of a different race and class Beyond Nostalgia is an excellent primer for professionals working with diverse groups in a variety of settings It is also an important contribution to the emerging field of feminist gerontology Ray's book demonstrates its own thesis that the presentation and negotiation of life stories in writing groups initiates change and personal growth among older people

Drawing on personal observations the give and take of meeting conversations lengthy interviews and the life stories themselves Ray tells a story of adult development through personal narrative She recreates the group process through which age peers begin to articulate what life means both individually and collectively The writing groups of older adults that Ray studied challenged their members to consider not just cultural influences but generational effects on the evolving content and structure of their life stories Age Ray argues has been largely ignored by feminists and she makes a strong case for the need to learn how women make meaning of their lives across the life span As an important document and analysis of that process Beyond Nostalgia should appeal to academics and practitioners in women s studies composition studies gerontology developmental psychology sociology social work and linguistics and to anyone who works with older people The Salon.com Reader's Guide to Contemporary Authors Laura Miller,Adam Begley,2000 An all original A to Z guide to 225 of the most fascinating writers of our time penned by an international cast of talented young critics and reviewers Cover students whom she had taught at university Some came from conservative and religious families others were progressive and secular several had spent time in jail They were shy and uncomfortable at first unaccustomed to being asked to speak their minds but soon they began to open up and to speak more freely not only about the novels they were reading but also about themselves their dreams and disappointments Their stories intertwined with those they were reading Pride and Prejudice Washington Square Daisy Miller and Lolita as they imagined her in Tehran Nafisi's account flashes back to the early days of the revolution when she first started teaching at the University of Tehran amid the swirl of protests and demonstrations In those frenetic days the students took control of the university expelled faculty members and purged the curriculum When a radical Islamist in Nafisi's class questioned her decision to teach The Great Gatsby which he saw as an immoral work that preached falsehoods of the Great Satan she decided to let him put Gatsby on trial and stood as the sole witness for the defense Azar Nafisi's luminous tale offers a fascinating portrait of the Iran Iraq war viewed from Tehran and gives us a rare glimpse from the inside of women's lives in revolutionary Iran It is a work of great passion and poetic beauty written with a startlingly original voice

The Book Review Digest, 2004 The New York Times Book Review, 1995-11 Carol Shields, Narrative Hunger, and the Possibilities of Fiction Ted Farrell, 2003-01-01 Award winning Canadian writer Carol Shields has garnered praise from scholars and an international audience of readers Inspired by the quality and scope of Shields's work Carol Shields Narrative Hunger and the Possibilities of Fiction addresses her creative exploration of postmodernism As the first thorough examination of the Pulitzer Prize winning author this collection of essays establishes the groundwork for future studies of her oeuvre The collection begins with a significant new essay from Shields herself Narrative Hunger and the Overflowing Cupboard perhaps her most substantial commentary upon her own aims as a writer In addition scholars from Canada

England the United States and Australia explore the complexity of Shields's work and her contributions to the genre of the novel. These lively essays reflect Shields's verve and her playful approach to today's sophisticated critical thinking. Among the topics are Shields's use of biography and autobiography, metafiction, popular romance, and symbolism. While the essays foreground the unreliability of language and hence our inability to know one another or even ourselves, the contributors argue that Shields has taken a step beyond postmodernism by suggesting that we can transcend the limitations of its epistemology. Containing several essays on Swann and The Stone Diaries, Shields's most popular works, and the most extensive annotated bibliography available of works by and about Shields, this collection will appeal widely to scholars, students, and readers of Carol Shields and Canadian fiction.

All I Did Was Ask Terry Gross, 2024-09-24. A fascinating collection of revealing and entertaining interviews by the award-winning host of National Public Radio's premier interview program Fresh Air. Over the last twenty years, Terry Gross has interviewed many of our most celebrated writers, actors, musicians, comics, and visual artists. Her show Fresh Air with Terry Gross, a weekday magazine of contemporary arts and issues produced by WHYY in Philadelphia, is one of National Public Radio's most popular programs. More than four million people tune in to the show, which is broadcast on over 400 NPR stations across the country. For All I Did Was Ask, Gross has selected more than three dozen of her best interviews, ones of lasting relevance that are as lively on the page as they were on the air. Each is preceded by a personal introduction in which she reveals why a particular guest was on the show and the thinking behind some of her questions. And in an introductory chapter, the normally self-effacing Gross does something you're unlikely ever to hear her do on Fresh Air: she discusses her approach to interviewing, revealing a thing or two about herself in the bargain. The collection focuses on luminaries from the art and entertainment world, including actors, comedians, writers, visual artists, and musicians such as Conan O'Brien, Chris Rock, Michael Caine, Dennis Hopper, Dustin Hoffman, Jodie Foster, John Updike, Mary Karr, Mario Puzo, Nick Hornby, Chuck Close, Eric Clapton, George Clinton, Sonny Rollins, Samuel L. Jackson, Johnny Cash, Isabella Rossellini, Divine, Uta Hagen, and Carol Shields. If interviewing people is like picking locks, Terry Gross holds a master key.
