

Ronald's quick and dirty Cure Space Elite

Phase One: Probes

First we need two ships defending the Kang, and three killing probes. We are going to kill all the probes under every cube without shooting any cubes. The best way is to approach the probes from below. This way you do not have to get within range of the cube in order to kill the probes. They don't fight back so just shoot away. If anyone gets aggro on any random borg ships that spawn, you should kill that ship right away as it will be a bother and slow your probe killing.

1. Kill right probes.
2. Kill center probes.
3. Kill left probes.

Phase Two: Cubes

The Cubes are not as tough as they look and they go down fast. You should give them all you got. Once a cube dies you MUST go help the Kang. Do this between killing each cube. This is where I have lost the most Cure Space Elite. People can't goof around on that part. A bunch of warships will come in and the Kang is done for.

1. Kill Left Cube.
2. HELP THE KANG.
3. Kill Center Cube.
4. HELP THE KANG.
5. Kill Right Cube.

Phase Three: Kill the Carrier

Same strategy just target the boss and keep shooting. You basically already won by this point.

FWW EXTRA NOTES:

I like to have two people defending the Kang for a specific reason. I want my probe killers to be able to position themselves well. I do not want them distracted by the mobs going towards the Kang. With two at the Kang the probe team doesn't even have to engage these mobs.
