What did the Rabshakeh want to do?

Hezekiah was a good king. He trusted God and always tried to do the right thing for his country, Judah. But when he had been king for 14 years, something terrible happened.

Another king wanted to get even more space and power. So he sent armies to take over the countries around him. That included Judah! This greedy king's name was Sennacherib, and he ruled Assyria. Assyria was already bigger and stronger than the other countries around.

Could you even find enough men to ride them into battle? You still wouldn't have a chance!"

Then the Rabshakeh said that his message was not just for the king. "Don't listen to King Hezekiah! The king of Assyria says, 'Make peace with me and come out to me. I will take you away to a land that is just as good as this.'" (The Assyrians took away people's land after they
