Our review covers these topics and historical time periods: The Colonial Period 1500-1763, The American Revolution 1763-1787, The United States Constitution 1787-1789, The New Nationalism 1789-1824, Jacksonian Democracy and Westward Expansion 1824-1850, Sectional Conflict and The Causes of the Civil War 1850-1860, The Civil War and Reconstruction 1860-1877, Industrialism, War, and the Progressive Era 1877-1912, Wilson and World War I 1912-1920, The Roaring Twenties and Economic Collapse 1920-1929, The Great Depression and the New Deal 1929-1941, World War II and the Post War Era 1941-1960, The New Frontier, Vietnam, and Social Upheaval 1960-1972, Watergate, Carter, and the New Conservatism 1972-2001.

SCORING THE EXAM The multiple choice section of the exam is scored by crediting each correct answer with one point and deducting one-fourth of a point for each incorrect answer. You will neither receive a credit nor suffer a deduction for unanswered questions. The free response essays are graded by instructors and professors from across the country who come together each June for a week of non-stop AP essay grading. Each essay booklet is read and scored by several graders. Each grader provides a score for the individual essays. The DBQ is scored on a scale from 0 to 15, 0 being the lowest and 15 the highest. Each topic-based essay receives a score from 0 to 9. These scores are concealed so that each grader is unaware of the previous graders' assessments. When the essays have been graded completely, the scores are averaged, one score for each essay, so that the free response section generates three scores. The total weight of the free response section is 50 percent of the total score. Your work in the multiple choice section counts for the other 50 percent. Each year grades fluctuate slightly because the grading scale is adjusted to take into account the performance of the total AP U.S. History test taker population. When used with the corresponding chart, the scoring method we present here will strongly approximate the score you would receive if you were sitting for the actual AP U.S. History exam.

SCORING THE MULTIPLE CHOICE SECTION For the multiple choice section, use this formula to calculate your raw score: $\text{Number right} - \frac{1}{4} \times \text{Number wrong}$. Round to the nearest whole number.

SCORING THE FREE RESPONSE SECTION For the free response section, use this formula to calculate your raw score: $\text{DBQ} + \text{Essay 1} + \text{Essay 2}$. Round to the nearest whole number. You may want to give your essays three different grades, such as a 13, 10, and an 8, and then calculate your score three ways, as if you did.

Much of the current debate about education too often resembles the blind men describing an elephant apprehending only a particular part of the situation or the process many analysts tell an evocative but incomplete story The so called reform discussion proceeds with a lack of depth about the nuances and realistic limitations in the institutional order of school This book argues that as regulation of schools moves further up the bureaucratic hierarchy first to state departments of education then to the national department of education the legal and institutional requirements get more intensive but less concretely useful in class rooms This bureaucratization serves to tighten the organizational environment thereby increasing the risk of normal accidents The increasing governmental management in other words makes it more likely that schools will fail to meet their goals Analyses of education are too often developed for public consumption in a fast moving political world This book examines some of the deeper organizational reasons why things don t work so well in school as well as a look at some of things that do work Most importantly the book will explain how the social and cultural expectations of what schools can do may create unrealistic hopes We as a society and schools as institutions embrace these unreasonably high hopes at our collective peril Check out Andrew s latest interview with Seattle Radio <http://kiroradio.com> listen 9972862 Courtis Standard Practice Tests in Arithmetic Stuart Appleton Courtis,1920
