Christian School Teacher A. Duane Hooper, 2008-12 How many Christian school teachers are fully familiar with God's biblical mandates for their vocation School teachers inherently hold a powerful influence over students for good or bad This sobering reality should motivate all school administrators especially in Christian schools to ensure that their teachers are spiritually qualified Academic qualifications for teachers are essential but spiritual qualifications are critical for meeting the biblical goals of education In fact it is the spiritual motivation and qualification of teachers that should be the greatest area of concern during the process of selecting faculty members to serve in Christian schools Veteran teacher and Christian counselor Hooper offers twenty one defining principles that separate Christian teachers from those who are not Christian Do today's school teachers make the grade This book is a must read for all who aspire to serve God effectively in the school classroom Duane Hooper is a school teacher principal ordained minister and board certified Christian counselor His ministry was providentially redirected from the pastorate to education in 1990 when he began serving as teacher at Bay Area Christian School in League City Texas While serving as teacher and junior high principal his passion for Christian education intensified Concerning the influence held by teachers especially in light of Christ's love for children Duane was burdened regarding the need for Christian teachers to model not just Spiritual fruit but Christ's express love for children. Duane's love for students is manifested in his several nominations to Who's Who Among America's Teachers. With both masters and doctoral degrees in Christian education and a Ph.D. in Christian Counseling, Duane has an ardent passion to share what he believes to be a Bible-based vision for the ministries of Christian school teachers, whether serving in Christian or public schools.

The Oxford Handbook of Deaf Studies, Language, and Education, Volume 1 Marc Marschark, Patricia Elizabeth Spencer, 2010-12-14. The field of deaf studies, language, and education has grown dramatically over the past forty years. From work on the linguistics of sign language and parent-child interactions to analyses of school placement and the mapping of brain function in deaf individuals, research across a range of disciplines has greatly expanded, not just our knowledge of deafness and the deaf, but also the very origins of language, social interaction, and thinking. In this updated edition of the landmark original volume, a range of international experts present a comprehensive overview of the field of deaf studies, language, and education. Written for students, practitioners, and researchers, The Oxford Handbook of Deaf Studies, Language, and Education, Volume 1 is a uniquely ambitious work that has altered both the theoretical and applied landscapes. Pairing practical information with detailed analyses of what works, why, and for whom, all while banishing the paternalism that once dogged the field, this first of two volumes features specially commissioned, updated essays on topics including language and language development, hearing and speech perception, education, literacy, cognition, and the complex cultural, social, and psychological issues associated with deaf and hard-of-hearing individuals. The range of these topics shows the current state of research and identifies the opportunities and challenges that lie ahead. Combining historical background, research, and strategies for teaching and service provision, the two-volume Oxford Handbook of Deaf Studies, Language, and Education stands as the benchmark reference work in the field of deaf studies.
