Correctional facilities - prisons - house people who have been convicted of a crime.

Wood right? About 4 million miles of roads cross the U.S.

Safe and sound. Community police, state troopers, the National Guard, and the FBI (Federal Bureau of Investigation) work to fight crime.

Your teachers, your schools. Local communities hire teachers, build schools, and decide whether to send their school children to and from school when they're taught in the state's responsibility.

Behind the wheel. Every state has a Department of Motor Vehicles. When you're old enough to get a driver's license, that's where you'll go.

Amend! Any amendment to our Constitution must be approved in at least 38 states.

Cutting costs. A state controls all the hospitals within its borders and owns direct control over specific facilities.

Electing our President. Every state elects electors for the Electoral College. Electors cast votes for whichever candidate gets the majority of votes in the state.

Quick, call 9-1-1! Your community's first responders - firefighters, police, and EMTs (Emergency Medical Technicians) - are there in minutes.

Read, play, enjoy. If you like stories, sports books, games, and other recreation facilities in your community, say there are in your local government.

Emergency care. Without your local government to make the calls and to perform, you may end up with a rough ride.

Electricity, natural gas, and water are responsible for the managed and distributed. Local communities are in charge.

Pick! That's what you might say without the garbage collection provided by your community's sanitation department.
