

- b. Assessment
- c. Assurance
- d. Scientific knowledge-based care

ANS: C

Assurance focuses on the responsibility of public health agencies to ensure certain activities have been appropriately carried out to meet public health goals and plans. Policy development seeks to build constituencies that can help bring about change in public policy. Assessment includes activities that involve collecting, analyzing, and disseminating information on both the health status and the health-related aspects of a community or a specific population. Public health is based on scientific knowledge but is not a core function.

7. What is the purpose of public health core functions?
- a. Clarifying the role of the government in fulfilling the mission of public health
 - b. Ensuring the safety of populations in receiving quality health care
 - c. Providing community-based individualized care to every person in the United States
 - d. Uniting public and private providers of care in a comprehensive approach to providing health care

ANS: A

As defined by the Institute of Medicine in its 1988 report The Future of Public Health, assessment, policy development, and assurance are core functions at all levels of government for the purpose of clarifying the government's role.
