A Lifetime of Memories Thelma C. Fullwood, 2008-08-13 To have been created by God to be able to withstand the trauma of losing a family member is tribute to the wisdom of our Creator He has given us the tenacity to go on beyond the grief and sorrow We have the capacity to continue our lives with renewed knowledge and confidence in Him That innate ability allows us to be able to continue in a resource of hope This hope is that catalyst we use to grow from despair to greater anticipation and expectation As adults we must remember the impact of losing a loved one and realize that children also carry a pain that is just as real as our own Loss can carry with it a force that can be detrimental to their future growth and development as well Only when we realize this can we see the need to be as attentive and as sensitive to their needs in grief and sorrow as we would be to adults In this story Margies Aunt Clara loves the fact that Margie looks and acts so much as she did at her age An added bonus is that her own daughter Gloria who is close in age has a sister sister relationship with Margie that has developed over the years Aunt Clara feels that she has been blessed with two wonderful daughters that create happiness in her life Then Margie hears that an old illness of Aunt Clara's has resurfaced and she is almost devastated Much of who she now is is a direct result of the time she has spent and wisdom she has gained from Aunt Clara Can Margie continue on with her life of vibrancy and stability We find out through the assistance of another friend Ms Winn who is widowed in A Lifetime of Memories

Minnesota Journal of Education, 1925 Between Their World and Ours Karen Zelan, 2007-04-01 Autism has reached epidemic proportions The latest studies suggest that as many as one in 150 children ages ten and younger may be affected by autism a total of 300 000 children in the United States alone Adults included there are more than a million people in the United States suffering from autistic disorders Since autism has had a bleak prognosis and since the isolation of autistic children is so painful to parents Karen Zelan's accounts of her breakthroughs with autistic children in Between Their World and Ours present a particularly hopeful perspective Zelan illustrates how diagnostic labels reflect the preconceptions and prejudices of the diagnostician but reveal nothing about the unique person who carries the label and his potential as a human being Describing nine of the forty-five autists with whom she has worked Zelan documents how psychotherapy with autistic youth helps them to overcome their problems in communicating playing feeling thinking and interacting with people more companionably Her riveting narratives showing her growing understanding of her young patients capture how it is to be autistic She describes the ways these young people meet the challenges of being the way they are Her work demonstrates how the social context in which autistic children find themselves can make a significant difference in their development their self-esteem and their ability to think through problems in living Zelan a gifted and intuitive psychotherapist shows how the autist's sense of self emerges during childhood She details how these autistic children's first friendships originate the pitfalls and pleasures they experience in relating to their peers their dreams and their fears of social contact These real-life stories reveal what worked with autistic children and why Zelan offers prescriptive suggestions for parents and teachers based on her discoveries demonstrating humane ways of dealing with the often troubling problems of autism and of closing the gap between their world and ours Teaching Freedom Massimo Castoldi, 2024-08-06 Starting in the early 1900s male and female elementary schoolteachers in Italy gained increasing awareness of the role of social workers in the fight against illiteracy and in creating civic consciousness based on widespread qualified education In 1900 the Unione Magistrale the Teachers Association was founded in 1919 the Sindacato Magistrale the Italian Teachers Union a member of the General Confederation of Labor was created Inevitably some of these teachers firmly convinced of their duty opposed fascism which from the moment it originated aimed at creating obedient boys who were loyal to fascist doctrine and trained in warfare and girls ready to become the mothers and wives of soldiers These teachers resisted in the most diverse ways Some were forced to abandon teaching a number of them were killed by fascist violence but others were able to navigate the restrictions imposed on them by the regime In Teaching Freedom the author reconstructs twelve biographies of these teachers based on unpublished material and archive documents in a form of research suspended between history and pedagogy The chronological order of the stories retraces the way fascism progressively seized power suffocating all forms of freedom of expression Moreover the study of newly found documents and various testimonies show the teachers ceaseless invention of alternative teaching strategies
