Strategic Management John A. Parnell, 2013-01-15 Balancing theory with practice this fully updated fourth edition of John A Parnell's acclaimed text continues to provide detailed accessible coverage of the strategic management field Taking a global perspective the text addresses concepts sequentially from external and internal analysis to strategy formulation strategy execution and strategic control To help readers build their analytic skills as they master course concepts Parnell aligns each chapter's key concepts with 25 case analysis steps Current examples and high interest cases largely drawn from The Wall Street Journal and Financial Times illustrate the key role of strategic management in the United States and around the world Ideal for the capstone strategic management course Strategic Management is appropriate for a range of undergraduate and graduate courses

Graphic Borders Frederick Luis Aldama, Christopher González, 2016-04-12 From the influential work of Los Bros Hernandez in Love Latino comic book author artists who complicate issues of race and gender through their careful reconfigurations of the body comic strips Latino superheroes in mainstream comics and the complex ways that Latino superheroes are created and consumed within larger popular cultural trends Taken as a whole the book unveils the resplendent riches of comics by and about Latinos and proves that there are no limits to the ways in which Latinos can be represented and imagined in the world of comics

Cemeterians Jack W. Plunkett, 2008 Franklin Jack Marla Thadius and Caitlin this unlikely group of assorted misfits are the Cemeterians a group that will take on any job no really we mean any bloody job money's a bit tight right now Trudge through disgusting sewers to battle manatee massacring mermaids and soggy cultists creep through creepy fog littered cemeteries straight out of an ancient Hammer Film soundstage confront undead lecherous lodgers and other assorted beasties creepies and ghoulies It all comes down to whether an adolescent giant Automaton a truly mad Mad Scientist a surly Necromancer a Banshee's granddaughter and a reluctant furry monster straight from under your little sister's bed can manage not to kill each other or at least quit fighting over the tele privilege schedule long enough to get the job done Not likely

Married Life in the Middle Ages, 900-1300 Elisabeth M. C. Van Houts, 2019 An analysis of the lived experience of Christian married life in Christian medieval Europe this study examines the process of getting married and wedding celebrations the married life of lay couples and clergy their sexuality and any remarriage and alternative living including concubinage polygyny and the single life

Legalism Georgy Kantor, Tom Lambert, Hannah Skoda, 2017-12-08 In this volume ownership is defined as the simple fact of being able to describe something as mine or yours and property is distinguished as the discursive field which allows the articulation of attendant rights relationships and obligations Property is often articulated through legalism as a way of thinking that appeals to rules and to generalizing concepts as a way of understanding responding to and managing the world around one An Aristotelian perspective suggests that ownership is the natural state of things and a prerequisite of a true sense of self An alternative perspective from legal theory puts law at the heart of the origins of property However both these points of view are problematic in a wider context the latter because it rests heavily on Roman law Anthropological and historical studies enable us to interrogate these assumptions The articles here ranging from Roman provinces to modern day piracy in Somalia address questions such as How are legal property regimes intertwined with economic moral ethical and political prerogatives How far do the assumptions of the western philosophical tradition explain property and ownership in other societies Is the bundle of rights a useful way to think about property How does legalism negotiate property relationships and interests between communities and individuals How does the legalism of property respond to the temporalities and materialities of the objects owned How are property regimes managed by states and what kinds of conflicts are thus generated Property and ownership cannot be reduced to natural rights nor do they straightforwardly reflect power relations the rules through which property is articulated tend to be conceptually subtle As the fourth volume in the Legalism series this collection draws on common themes that run throughout the first three volumes Legalism Anthropology and History Legalism Community and Justice and Legalism Rules and Categories consolidating them in a framework that suggests a new approach to legal concepts

Cultures of Conflict Resolution in Early Modern Europe Stephen Cummins, Laura Kounine, 2017-05-15 Disputes discord and reconciliation were fundamental parts of the fabric of communal living in early modern Europe This edited volume presents essays on the cultural codes of conflict and its resolution in this period under three broad themes peacemaking as practice the nature of mediation and arbitration and the role of criminal law in conflicts Through an exploration of conflict and peacemaking this volume provides innovative accounts of state formation community and religion in the early modern period

Four Words for Friend Marek Kohn, 2019-04-09 A compelling argument about the importance of using more than one language in today's world In a world that has English as its global language and rapidly advancing translation technology it's easy to assume that the need to use more than one language will diminish but Marek Kohn argues that plural language use is more important than ever In a divided world it helps us to understand ourselves and others better to live together better and to make the most of our various cultures Kohn whom the Guardian has called one of the best science writers we have brings together perspectives from psychology evolutionary thought politics literature and everyday experience He explores how people acquire languages how they lose them how they can regain them how different languages may affect people's perceptions their senses of self and their relationships with each other and how to resolve the fundamental contradiction of languages that they exist as much to prevent communication as to make it happen
