Spirit Guide Black Hawk:

The spirit of Black Hawk Jason Berry, 1995 Spiritual and Social Transformation in African American Spiritual Churches Margarita Simon Guillory, 2017-12-22 At the core of African American religion's response to social inequalities has been a symbiotic relationship between socio-political activism and spiritual restoration Drawing on archival material and ethnographic fieldwork with African American Spiritual Churches in the USA this book examines how their spiritual and social work can shed light on the interplay between corporate activism and individual spirituality This book traces the development of this politico-spiritual approach to injustice from the beginning of the twentieth century through the opening decade of the twenty-first century using the work of African American Spiritual Churches as a lens through which to observe its progression Addressing subjects such as spiritual healing support of the homeless gender equality and the aftermath of hurricane Katrina it demonstrates that these communities are clearly motivated by the dual concerns of the soul and the community This study diversifies our understanding of the African American religious landscape highlighting an approach to social injustice that conjoins both political and spiritual transformations As such it will be of significant interest to scholars of religious studies African American studies and politics

Crichlow, 2013-09-13 Drawing on rich insights from cultural post structural and postcolonial studies this book demands that we rethink Carnival and the carnivalesque as not just celebratory moments or even as critical subtext but also as insightful performatives of social life anywhere given the entangled times and spaces of these performances The authors review Carnival s performative aspects not merely as a calendrical festival but rather center attention on the relationship between carnival and everyday life and on how people negotiate their social spaces and possibilities in the context of modern power The book therefore seeks to highlight the knotted time spaces of power and to demonstrate the dynamic interplay between state spaces and people s spaces that are being weaved by carnival s interlocutors It demonstrates how Carnival and the Carnivalesque become analytic optics through which the relations of power in the social and political life of subjects who seek to tacitly or strategically vary their given identities can be productively engaged This book was originally published as a special issue of Social Identities Journal for the Study of Race Nation and Culture
