a coherent program of transformative practice A few of Murphy s central observations and proposal include The observation that cultural conditioning powerfully shapes or extinguishes metanormal capacities The proposition that we cannot comprehend our potentials for extraordinary life without an empirical approach that involves many fields of inquiry and different kinds of knowing The notion that a widespread realization of extraordinary capacities would constitute an evolutionary transcendence analogous to the rise of humankind from its primal ancestry The proposal that all or most instances of significant human development are produced by a limited number of identifiable activities such as disciplined self observation visualization of desired capacities and caring for others The idea that a balanced development of our various capacities is possible through integrated practices In The Future Of The Body Murphy states that such practices can carry forward Earth s evolutionary adventure and lead humanity to the next step in its development Singing the Soul Back Home

Italian futurism's interest in the disruptive and destructive effects of technology Futurist Conditions provides a refreshing update to the historical narrative by arguing that the formal and conceptual approaches by futurist visual artists reoriented the possibly dehumanizing effects of mechanized imagery toward more humanizing spiritual aims Through its sustained analysis of the artworks and writings of Umberto Boccioni Giacomo Balla and the Bragaglia brothers dating to the first decade after the movement's founding in 1909 Mather's account of their obsession with kinetic motion pivots around a 1913 debate on the place and relative import of photography among traditional artistic mediums a debate culminating in the expulsion of the Bragaglias but one that also prompted a range of productive responses by other futurist artists to world changing social political and economic conditions Golden Age ,1926
