

T-Shirt Sponsorship Letter Request

We are inviting you to consider becoming a sponsor of our inaugural Pick Up Your Tutu 5K Run & Fun Run on November 3, 2012 at Stephen's Lake Park.

The goal of the run is to help cover expenses for our competitive dancers to attend dance competitions during the 2012-2013 season. We compete in 4 local regional competitions in St. Louis or Kansas City and one National event during the summer. The summer of 2013 we will be competing at Disney!

Thank you for your consideration of this request for your support. We have several levels and options that you can choose from to show your support. All sponsors will receive a spot on the back of the race t-shirt. All Gold sponsors will receive one race entry for free. The size of the logo will be determined by the level of the sponsorship.

Levels are listed below in the sponsorship business information sheet. If you have any questions, please contact the Academy of Fine Arts Dance Studio at 573-675-7088.

Anything For a T-Shirt Ron Rubin, 2004-11-01 Fred Lebow was a dreamer the kind of dreamer who pursued his dream and made it a reality And the world is still reaping its rewards So begins this inspiring chronicle of a humbly born Holocaust survivor who parlayed natural marketing smarts and vision into a major position in recent American sports He started the New York City Marathon an event that transformed footracing from an elite austere sport into a wildly applauded attainable pursuit for all Forging a path across the city's five boroughs the marathon covers a daunting 26.2 mile course Ron Rubin's fascinating book tells how Lebow popularized the race With a stroke of marketing wizardry he turned it into the world's largest block party a gritty mixture of urban theater and kindly entrepreneurship This event has honored the spirit of the moment imbued competition with joy and celebrated play It put winning within the realm of every man and woman and became a race for all runners Lebow mainstreamed the notion of marathoning into popular culture some half million Americans now participate in the events Equally significant the book describes how Lebow scored his greatest personal victory by running in the marathon he created after being diagnosed with brain cancer

More Than A Shirt Joey D'Urso, 2025-06-19 Extensively researched and wonderfully written Joey's book deserves to be read by all Martin O'Neill There's more to every aspect of football than meets the eye and that's brilliantly captured here Adrian Chiles Intelligent thoughtful and brilliant Chris Mason BBC News Colourful a treat for anyone interested in football and politics Patrick Maguire The Times Original and innovative a Parts Unknown for the game Miguel Delaney Independent Smart warm and original Matt Chorley BBC Radio 5 Live _____ Twenty Two Football Shirts that explain the world geopolitics and the biggest stories of our time Football is the world's most popular sport and the shirts worn by teams and their supporters are its greatest means of cultural expression Every year clubs launch new kits with increasingly extravagant marketing campaigns and convoluted explanations of how their designs reflect their history and local community But football shirts are much more than just a symbol of which club we support A seemingly innocuous combination of colours sponsor logos and materials can all reflect the social values financial struggles and political ideologies of the day as geopolitical issues increasingly seep into every aspect of the game Investigative journalist Joey D'Urso has travelled across the globe combining on the ground reporting with unparalleled analysis to collate a list of the twenty two football shirts that best explain the modern world More Than A Shirt will take fans on a journey from Birmingham to Belgrade and onto Medellin and Mumbai outlining how we can see the war in Ukraine in the shirt of Schalke in Germany or China's foreign policy in West Bromwich Albion's how the shirts of state owned clubs are used for sportswashing and why the French national kit embodies worldwide migration patterns A compelling and eye opening exploration More Than A Shirt is essential reading for any football fan and will change the way you think about the beautiful game's most universal symbol through the multibillion dollar child sponsorship industry Christian Globalism at Home looks at the massive charitable industry that is Christian child sponsorship from its growth in nineteenth century Protestant missions to its status as one of today's most profitable private fundraising tools Investigating two centuries of sponsorship and its related practices in American living rooms churches and shopping malls Hillary Kaell examines the myriad ways that Christians who don't travel outside of the United States have cultivated global connections and the ethical and ideological questions involved Popular child sponsorship organizations including World Vision Compassion International and ChildFund raise billions of dollars and circulate millions of letters and photos around the world annually Kaell traces the movement of money letters and images along with a wide array of the lesser known techniques of sponsorship such as playacting hymn singing eating and fasting She shows how through this process U.S. Christians attempt to hone globalism of a particular sort by oscillating between the sensory experiences of a God's eye view and the intimacy of human relatedness These global aspirations are buoyed by grand hopes and subject to intractable limitations since they so often rely on the inequities they claim to redress Based on extensive interviews archival research and fieldwork Christian Globalism at Home explores how U.S. Christians imagine and experience the world without ever leaving home
