Race, Ethnicity and Football Daniel Burdsey,2012-01-25 As the first edited collection dedicated specifically to race ethnicity and British football this book brings together a range of academics comprising both established commentators and up and coming voices Combining theoretical and empirical contributions the volume addresses a wide variety of topics such as the experiences of Muslims the recruitment of African players devolution and national identities case studies of minority ethnic clubs mixed race players multiculturalism and anti racism sectarianism education and covering the amateur and professional spheres and focusing on both players and supporters the book elucidates the linkages between race ethnicity gender and masculinity British Sporting Relations with Apartheid South Africa Matthew P. Llewellyn, Toby C. Rider, 2024-11-25 The transnational anti apartheid sport boycott of South Africa represented the most prominent extended and controversial anti racism campaign in the history of sport Spearheaded by prominent British religious and anti colonial figures and exiled South Africans emboldened by communist and Global South support and legitimised by supranational political bodies such as the United Nations the Organisation of African Unity and the Commonwealth the sport boycott helped propel anti apartheid out of relative obscurity and struck at the very heart of a cultural practice that served an explicitly ideological function in Afrikaner society Britain held a dichotomous even paradoxical role as both prosecutor and defender of white South Africa This book utilises sport as a critical lens for understanding the dynamics and dichotomies of British attitudes towards the apartheid regime Debates over whether to continue or to cut sporting links with apartheid South Africa proved bitterly divisive The considerable weight the subject carried and the degree to which it saturated British political and social discourse for four decades speaks to its impact and importance British Sporting Relations with Apartheid South Africa represents the first archival based historical examination of Britain's sporting relations with South Africa throughout the apartheid era 1948 1994 Situating the analysis within the shifting multiracial and multicultural landscapes of postcolonial Britain and within global political cultural sporting and ideological debates the authors trace the origins and evolution of the transnational sport boycott and examine what inspired Britons to energise anti apartheid sport campaigns and in contrast what drove many others to vehemently oppose them at every turn English Radicalism (1935-1961) S. Maccoby, 2019-03-13 This is volume 6 of the set English Radicalism 1935 1961 Reissuing the epic undertaking of Dr S Maccoby these volumes cover the story of English Radicalism from its origins right through to its questionable end By Combining new sources with the old and often long forgotten the volumes provide an impressive history of radicalism and shed light on the course of English political development The six volumes are arranged chronologically from 1762 through to the perceived end of British Radicalism in the mid twentieth century National and English Review, 1917 The New English Review Magazine, 1917 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1910 The Facts on File Companion to British Poetry Before 1600 Michelle M. Sauer, 2008 Some of the most important authors in British poetry left their mark on literature before 1600 including Geoffrey Chaucer Edmund Spenser and of course William Shakespeare The Facts On File Companion to British Poetry before 1600 is an encyclopedic guide to British poetry from the beginnings to the year 1600 featuring approximately 600 entries ranging in length from 300 to 2 500 words Crime, Deviance and Doping M. Yar, 2014-01-06 Yar examines the autobiographies of fallen sports stars exploring their fall from grace and the stigma it entails Drawing upon sociological and criminological perspectives it illuminates how fallen stars use confessional acts of story telling to seek forgiveness vindication and redemption
