Winged Words from God Madeline Beber, 2014-10-29 , Good Words , 1860 Modernity in the Light of the Word of God - Vol.2 Metr. Averky (Taushev), Wealth without work Pleasure without conscience Science without humanity Knowledge without character Politics without principle Commerce without morality Worship without sacrifice <https://vidjambov.blogspot.com/2023/01/bookinventoryvladimirdjambovtalmach.html> Everything offered here is my church sermons speeches on the occasion of various solemn gatherings and articles written between 1951 the year I arrived in the United States and began my ministry to the Russian Church Abroad at the Holy Trinity Monastery in Jordanville in the rank of Archimandrite and then in the rank of Bishop since 1953 and Archbishop since 1961 The Reason why All Christians Should Read God's Written Word in Greek: and Demonstration Afforded of the Ease with which an Accurate Knowledge Thereof May be Gained, Etc CHRISTIANS., 1868 A New Commentary on Genesis Franz Delitzsch, 1888 The Theosophical Quarterly , 1907 The Character of God Thomas E. Jenkins, 1997-12-04 Educated people have become bereft of sophisticated ways to develop their religious inclinations A major reason for this is that theology has become vague and dull In The Character of God author Thomas E Jenkins maintains that Protestant theology became boring by the late nineteenth century because the depictions of God as a character in theology became boring He shows how in the early nineteenth century American Protestant theologians downplayed biblical depictions of God's emotional complexity and refashioned his character according to their own notions stressing emotional singularity These notions came from many sources but the major influences were the neoclassical and sentimental literary styles of characterization dominant at the time The serene benevolence of neoclassicism and the tender sympathy of sentimentalism may have made God appealing in the mid 1800s but by the end of the century these styles had lost much of their cultural power and increasingly came to seem flat and vague Despite this both liberal and conservative theologians clung to these characterizations of God throughout the twentieth century Jenkins argues that a way out of this impasse can be found in romanticism the literary style of characterization that supplanted neoclassicism and sentimentalism and dominated American literary culture throughout the twentieth century Romanticism emphasized emotional complexity and resonated with biblical depictions of God A few maverick religious writers such as Harriet Beecher Stowe W G T Shedd and Horace Bushnell did devise emotionally complex characterizations of God and in some cases drew directly from romanticism But their strange and sometimes shocking depictions of God were largely forgotten in the twentieth century's use of theological as a pejorative term implying that an argument is needlessly Jenkins urges a reassessment of their work and a greater understanding of the relationship between theology and literature Recovering the lost literary power of American Protestantism he claims will make the character of God more compelling and help modern readers appreciate the peculiar power of the biblical characterization of God A Concordance to the Poems of Edmund Spenser Charles Grosvenor Osgood, 1915 Homer Barbara Graziosi, Johannes

Haubold,2013-10-16 This book offers a new approach to the study of Homeric epic by combining ancient Greek perceptions of Homer with up to date scholarship on traditional poetry Part I argues that in the archaic period the Greeks saw the Iliad and Odyssey neither as literary works in the modern sense nor as the products of oral poetry Instead they regarded them as belonging to a much wider history of the divine cosmos whose structures and themes are reflected in the resonant patterns of Homer's traditional language and narrative techniques Part II illustrates this claim by looking at some central aspects of the Homeric poems the gods and fate gender and society death fame and poetry Each section shows how the patterns and preoccupations of Homeric storytelling reflect a historical vision that encompasses the making of the universe from its beginnings when Heaven mated with Earth to the present day The Canadian Annual Review of Public Affairs ,1916

Against the Uprooted Word Tristram Wolff,2022-10-11 In this revisionist account of romantic era poetry and language philosophy Tristram Wolff recovers vibrant ways of thinking language and nature together Wolff argues that well known writers including Phillis Wheatley Peter's William Blake William Wordsworth and Henry David Thoreau offer a radical chronopolitics in reaction to the uprooted word or the formal analytic used to classify languages in progressive time according to a primitivist timeline of history and a hierarchy of civilization Before the bad naturalisms of nineteenth century race science could harden language into place as a metric of social difference poets and thinkers try to soften thicken deepen and dissolve it This naturalizing tendency makes language more difficult to uproot from its active formation in the lives of its speakers And its gray romanticism simultaneously gives language different kinds of time most strikingly the deep time of geologic form to forestall the hardening of time into progress Reorienting romantic studies to consider colonialism's pervasive effects on theories of language origin Wolff shows us the ambivalent position of romantics in this history His reparative reading makes visible language's ability to reimagine social forms Personhood of God Dr. Yochanan
