Spring Break 2015 Michigan High Schools:

Michigan Man Angelique Chengelis, Jack Harbaugh, 2017-09-15 All eyes and ears turned toward Ann Arbor in late 2014 when it was announced that Jim Harbaugh would be returning to the Big House as the new head coach of Michigan football. Now Angelique Chengelis, longtime chronicler of the Wolverines for the Detroit News, gives the inside story on how exactly Harbaugh restored the Michigan program to national title contender status. Learn how he instilled a new culture and rankled rivals with outspokenness, creative tactics, and relentless recruiting. Get the behind-the-scenes story on how and why Harbaugh chose to come back to the university he led to glory as its starting quarterback in the early 1980s. Follow along as Jabrill Peppers, Jake Butt, and others develop into true stars. Michigan Man is a comeback tale, an examination of the rapid turnaround from a five-win team in 2014 to squads that earned 10 wins plus trips to the Citrus and Orange Bowls in 2015 and 2016 respectively. Featuring extensive interviews with Harbaugh himself, this is a book Wolverines faithful and football fans in general will not want to miss.

Globalisation, Values Education and Teaching Democracy Joseph Zajda, Pamela Hallam, John Whitehouse, 2023-01-18 This book critiques dominant discourses and debates pertaining to values education, cultural identity, and teaching democracy, set against the backdrop of growing social stratification and unequal access to quality education. It addresses discourses concerning globalisation, ideologies, and the state, as well as approaches to values education and teaching democracy in schools. The book explores the ambivalent and problematic connections between the state, globalisation, values education, and teaching democracy. It also explores conceptual frameworks and methodological approaches applicable to research on values education, multiculturalism, and identity politics. Drawing on diverse paradigms ranging from critical theory to globalisation, and by focusing on globalisation ideology and values education, the book critically examines research dealing with cultural diversity and its impact on identity politics. Given the need for a multiple perspective approach, the authors, who have diverse backgrounds and hail from different countries and regions, offer a wealth of insights contributing to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between values education, multiculturalism, and national identity. With contributions from key scholars worldwide, the book should be required reading for a broad spectrum of users, including policy makers, academics, graduate students, education policy researchers, administrators, and practitioners.

Broader, Bolder, Better Elaine Weiss, Paul Reville, 2021-02-23 In Broader, Bolder, Better, authors Elaine Weiss of the Broader, Bolder Approach to Education campaign and Paul Reville, former Massachusetts secretary of education, make a compelling case for a fundamental change in the way we view education. The authors argue for a large-scale expansion of community school partnerships in order to provide holistic, integrated student supports, from cradle to career, including traditional wrap-around services like health, mental health, nutrition, and family supports, as well as expanded access to opportunities such as early childhood education, afterschool activities, and summer enrichment programs. The book builds on nearly a decade of research by the Broader, Bolder Approach to Education, a national initiative endorsed by more than sixty policy experts and leaders from across the country and draws on the work of Harvard's Education Redesign Lab. It pulls from case studies of effective ISS efforts in twelve diverse communities to illustrate the variety of strategies that can be adopted locally. A call to action that also provides examples of communities that are successfully leveling the playing field for poor children, this book offers a detailed vision for building through field work mobilization and financing comprehensive systems to prepare all children for success.

of debility bodily injury and social exclusion brought on by economic and political factors to disrupt the category of disability She shows how debility disability and capacity together constitute an assemblage that states use to control populations Puar's analysis culminates in an interrogation of Israel's policies toward Palestine in which she outlines how Israel brings Palestinians into biopolitical being by designating them available for injury Supplementing its right to kill with what Puar calls the right to maim the Israeli state relies on liberal frameworks of disability to obscure and enable the mass debilitation of Palestinian bodies Tracing disability's interaction with debility and capacity Puar offers a brilliant rethinking of Foucauldian biopolitics while showing how disability functions at the intersection of imperialism and racialized capital
