Munsey's Magazine for ... ,1900 Munsey's Weekly ,1900 Munsey's Magazine ,1900 Supreme Court Appellate Division , The New York Times Index ,1926 Netting Out Basketball 1936 Rich Hughes,2011-11-10

1936 was the most significant year in basketball's first half century. For the first time Olympic basketball ended with a gold medal game. Dr James Naismith was honored at the Berlin Olympics for his wonderful invention as basketball achieved widespread international acceptance in a short period of time. 45 years after creating an exciting indoor sport for a physical education class, Naismith watched 23 countries vie for the gold. Boycotts protested Hitler's policies within the Olympic host country of Germany and as a result politics and sports were forever linked. Other meaningful firsts for the 1935-36 playing season included controversy in the US Olympic Tryout system, a problematic lack of funding for US Olympians and the actualization of new basketball strategies. Fast breaking offenses, dunking the ball and full court zone pressure were important new techniques that radically changed the game. This book tells the little known story of the 1936 team which transformed basketball. The book documents the McPherson Refiners' significant role in developing basketball's faster dynamic playing style. The mishaps and fortunes of the Refiners and three other AAU teams who placed men on Berlin's muddy clay court will be the focus of the book.

The Saturday Evening Post ,1925 Transforming the Irvine Ranch H. Pike Oliver, C. Michael Stockstill,2022-06-24

From citrus trees to spring breakers, Transforming the Irvine Ranch tells the story of Orange County's metamorphosis from 93,000 acres of farmland into an iconic Southern California landscape of beaches and modernist architecture. Drawing on decades of archival research and their own years at the famed Irvine Company, the authors bring a collection of colorful characters responsible for the transformation to life, including Ray Watson whose nearly century long life took him from an Oakland boarding house to the Irvine and Walt Disney Company boardrooms; Joan Irvine Smith, a much married heiress who waged war against the US government and the Irvine Foundation's reactionary board; and won William Pereira, the visionary architect whose work became synonymous with the LA cityscape. Spanning the history of modern California from its Gold Rush past to the late 1970s, Transforming the Irvine Ranch chronicles a storied family's largely successful attempts to remake the vast Irvine Ranch in its own image.

Athletics in Drogheda 1861-2001 Joe Coyle,2003

Athletics in Drogheda 1861-2001 tells the story of how the modern sports of track, field, cross country and road racing made their separate ways to the Boyneside town of Drogheda in Co. Louth. It chronicles the social conditions that initially confined such activities to a small section of the community. Generally the population outside of the upper classes could spectate but they were frozen out of participation. The book explains why. Gradually with changes in society and the development of organisations like the Gaelic Athletic Association (GAA) the sport was embraced by the masses in a plethora of urban and rural clubs. In Drogheda the sport was a major crowd pulling activity until the 1960s ushered in a fundamental change into the Western World's lifestyle. The story of how Drogheda men and women became county, national and international athletic stars is relayed through a combination of events, social comment and individual profiles of the more prominent characters. The narrative encompasses the start of the twenty first century. How to Fight a Cold and Win!

News of the World The Scallywags - Memories of a Rascal's 1950's Childhood Peter Stockley, 2016-07-07 Do you ever think about how the roads you walked as a child change the doors that open in your future?

In 1951 seven year old Peter Stockley's life was set down a dark path after losing his mother. Her legacy to him was an optimism and spirit that even a vile step mother could not break and after an explosive confrontation Peter set off on a new journey via an orphanage to his aunt and uncle's home in a tenement block by the North Liverpool docks. The Billogs. It was here he became one of The Scallywags, a group of streetwise young rascals who knew every inch of the canals, docklands and railway lines. With a turbulent home life, intense family tragedy and a chronic heart murmur, Peter had ground to make up in a golden age when children would play in the streets from dusk until dawn. But with the Scallywags he had the run of the city. Peter embarked on a youth of picaresque adventures, clinging to the backs of speeding lorries, treading the boards of bombed houses for firewood, head spinning climbs up five storey blocks of flats, nothing was out of bounds for the Scallywags. But their adventures also gave him an iron clad sense of morality, honesty and respect which would go on to shape the rest of his life. This nostalgic, deeply moving and often extremely funny memoir of youth and young manhood in the Liverpool of the fifties and sixties recalls the exuberant joy every child feels at being one of the gang and explores how the future can play out in very unexpected ways. The Journal of the Assembly, During the ...
