The Layperson's Library Robert A. Yost, 2020-12-30 In the spirit of Cyril Barber's classic work from the 1970s The Minister's Library and the author's 2017 book The Pastor's Library Robert Yost provides the same expert guidance now for a lay audience. Finally, laypersons who desire to study the Bible have an invaluable resource for the acquisition of research tools as well as general Christian reading. From general reference works such as Bible atlases and concordances, commentaries, devotional works, and theological studies to Christian biography and fiction, this book is a trustworthy guide through the multiplicity of books that just seem to keep rolling off the presses. Overwhelmed by the proliferation of Christian books on the shelves, this handy guide is the book for you. Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature Supplement, 1915 These vols contain the same material as the early vols of Social Sciences Humanities Index. Basic Bible 101 Old Testament

Leader's Guide Margaret Smith, 2009-03-11 Basic Bible 101 is for adults who didn't grow up in church or have forgotten everything they learned. The Leader's Guide includes initial assessment quizzes and Old Testament final. Designed to be used with the Basic Bible 101 Old Testament Student Workbook. Podcast available. See our website www.basicbible101.com.

Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, 1915 The Living Church, 1964 The Chronological Study Bible Thomas Nelson, 2008-10-14 The Chronological Study Bible is the only study Bible that presents the text of the New King James Version in chronological order, the order in which the events actually happened, with notes, articles, and full-color graphics that connect the reader to the history and culture of Bible times and gives the reader a dramatic "you are there" experience. Features include translators' notes, full-color illustrations of places, artifacts, and cultural phenomena, contextual articles that connect Biblical times and world history and culture, daily life notes, time panels, and charts that show the flow of Biblical history, and in-text and full-color maps. Intensional D. A. Horton, 2019-10-22 When it comes to the ethnic divisions in our world, we speak often of seeking racial reconciliation. But at no point have all the different ethnicities on Earth been reconciled. Animosity, distrust, and hostility among people from various ethnicities have always existed in American history. Even in the church, we have often built walls, ethnic segregation, classism, sexism, and theological tribes to divide God's people from each other. But it shouldn't be this way. God's people are the only people on earth who have experienced true reconciliation. Who better to enter into the ethnic tensions of our day with the hope of Jesus? In Intensional, pastor D. A. Horton steps into the tension to offer vision and practical guidance for Christians longing to embrace our Kingdom ethnicity, combating the hatred in our culture with the hope of Jesus Christ. College for Convicts Christopher Zoukis, 2014-10-28 The United States accounts for 5 percent of the world's population yet incarcerates about 25 percent of the world's prisoners. Examining a wealth of studies by researchers and correctional professionals and the experience of educators, this book shows recidivism rates drop in direct correlation with the amount of education prisoners receive, and the rate drops dramatically with each additional level of education attained. Presenting a workable solution to America's mass incarceration and recidivism problems this book demonstrates that great fiscal benefits arise when modest sums are spent educating prisoners Educating prisoners brings a reduction in crime and social disruption reduced domestic spending and a rise in quality of life
