Annual Catalogue United States Air Force Academy, 1983 Pedagogic Research in Geography Higher Education Martin Haigh, Debby Cotton, Tim Hall, 2017-10-02 There are many books about teaching in Geography but this is the first dealing specifically with Pedagogic Research its methods and practices Pedagogy research concerns the processes of learning and the development of learners It is a learner centred activity that aims to evaluate and improve the ways that students learn and learn to manage control and comprehend their own learning processes first as Geographers in Higher Education but equally as future educated citizens This book collects together some key research papers from the Journal of Geography in Higher Education They concern original research and critical perspectives on how Geographers learn critical evaluations of both new and traditional frameworks and methods used for Pedagogic research in Geography and some case studies on the promotion of self authorship learner autonomy in key Geography Higher Education contexts such as fieldwork and undergraduate project work This book is a compilation of articles from various issues of the Journal of Geography in Higher Education United States Air Force Academy United States Air Force Academy, ASAP Human Geography: A Quick-Review Study Guide for the AP Exam Princeton Review, 2017-12-12 A quick review study guide for the AP exam Cover Resources in Education , 2001 Wiki Works Robert Maloy, Allison Malinowski, 2017-11-01 Wiki Works in the History and Humanities Classroom shows how teachers and students working together as learning partners can use interactive wiki technologies to transform the teaching of history and humanities topics through web based research and inquiry based learning In its e text and print editions the book presents teaching strategies and technology integration examples from resourcesforhistoryteachers and other open educational content wikis Written for K 12 history social studies and humanities teachers college and university level teacher educators and college students who are preparing to become classroom teachers in middle and high schools there are separate chapters focus on using teacher and student made wikis to address curriculum standards teach web research and digital literacy explore dramatic historical events develop historical biographies connect influential literature discuss special topics and build flipped learning instructional lessons Normal Instructor and Teachers World , 1923 Journal of Education and School World , 1899 World War I Spencer C. Tucker, 2019-05-10 Offers detailed coverage of every country that played a significant role in World War I from key participants including France Germany Great Britain the Ottoman Empire and the United States to smaller nations such as Bulgaria Montenegro and New Zealand World War I A Country by Country Guide is a comprehensive reference exploring the role various nations played in this devastating conflict Each of the 22 country sections provides detailed background information the reasons behind the country s entry into the war a summary of its combat effort in the war a discussion of the home front experience and a description of the war s impact on that nation Illuminating sidebars offer an interesting war anecdote involving each country while essays survey each country s military branches and key military and political leaders

Finally a timeline for each nation covers all of the important events involving that country during World War I In addition to the country coverage a battles section offers entries on 18 of World War I s most important engagements and a separate section on weapons and tactical changes is included The book also features dozens of maps and images throughout the text that serve as important visual aids that help readers to understand all aspects of the conflict The Ohio Educational Monthly and the National Teacher ,1893 Educational Times ,1882 Primary Plans ,1906 Bulgaria, Hungary, Romania, the Czech Republic, and Slovakia Britannica Educational Publishing,2013-06-01 Bulgaria Hungary Romania the Czech Republic and Slovakia share a remarkably similar trajectory on their individual paths to becoming the nations they are today Each had ties to the Roman Byzantine and Ottoman empires in earlier times all became Eastern bloc countries in the 20th century and all successfully emerged from Communist rule in the late 20th and early 21st centuries These multi layered lands where folk traditions still exist alongside the hallmarks of modern life and the remnants of communist rule are the subjects of this sweeping tome The Myth of Shangri-La Peter Bishop,1989-01-01 Bishop s engrossing and readable account provides us with a fascinating picture of European myths concerning the Land of the Snows and of the role these myths played in shaping perceptions of the Orient Bishop s riveting portrait of European conceptions is an important and exceptionally well written contribution to an understanding of Western attitudes toward Tibet and all of East Asia Morris Rossabi author of Khubilai Khan His Life and Times Defiance Defiance College,1908 Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Bulletin ,1936 Peterson's Guide to Graduate Probrams in the Humanities, Arts, and Social Science Peterson's Guides, Inc,1992 Economic Literacy Stephanie Schwartz Driver,2010 Summary Takes steps to demystify complex global economic issues Offers the background to events both current and historical helping to clarify today s news headlines as well as chapters in history books Putting the Local in Global Education Neal W. Sobania,2023-07-03 The position taken in this volume is that domestic off campus study can be just as powerful a transformative learning experience as study overseas and that domestic programs can equally expand students horizons their knowledge of global issues and processes their familiarity and experience with cultural diversity their intercultural skills and sense of citizenship This book presents both the rationale for and examples of study away an inclusive concept that embraces study abroad while advocating for a wide variety of domestic study programs including community based education programs that employ academic service learning and internships With the growing diversification regionally demographically culturally and socio economically of developed economies such as the US the local is potentially a doorstep to the planet and presents opportunities for global learning Moreover study away programs can address many of the problematic issues associated with study abroad such as access finance participation health and safety and faculty support Between lower costs the potential to increase the participation of student cohorts typically under represented in study abroad the lowering of language barriers and the engagement of faculty whose disciplines focus on domestic issues study at home can greatly expand the reach of global learning The book is organized in five sections the first providing a framework and the rationale for domestic study way programs addressing administrative support for domestic vs study abroad programs exploring program goals organization structure assessment and continuous improvement and considering the distinct pedagogies of experiential and transformative education The second section focuses on Semester Long Faculty Led Programs featuring examples of programs located in a wide variety of locations from investigations into history immigration culture and the environment through localities in the West and the Lowcountry to exploring globalization in L A and New York Section three highlights five Short Term Faculty Led Programs While each includes an intensive immersive study away experience two illustrate how a 7 10 day study away experience can be effectively embedded into a regular course taught on campus The fourth section on Consortium Programs describes programs that are either sponsored by a college that makes its program available to consortium members and non members or is offered by an independent non for profit to which institutions send their students The final section on Community Engagement and Domestic Study Away addresses the place of community based education in global learning and provides examples of academic programs that employ service learning as a tool for collaborative learning focusing on issues of pedagogy faculty development and the building long term reciprocal relationship with community partners to co create knowledge The book is intended for study abroad professionals multicultural educators student affairs professionals alternative spring break directors and higher education administrators concerned about affordably expanding global education opportunities
