Ubelaker, 2016-07-28 With contributions from 70 experienced practitioners from around the world this second edition of the authoritative Handbook of Forensic Archaeology and Anthropology provides a solid foundation in both the practical and ethical components of forensic work The book weaves together the discipline s historical development current field methods for analyzing crime natural disasters and human atrocities an array of laboratory techniques key case studies involving legal professional and ethical issues and ideas about the future of forensic work all from a global perspective This fully revised second edition expands the geographic representation of the first edition by including chapters from practitioners in South Africa and Colombia and adds exciting new chapters on the International Commission on Missing Persons and on forensic work being done to identify victims of the Battle of Fromelles during World War I The Handbook of Forensic Anthropology and Archaeology provides an updated perspective of the disciplines of forensic archaeology and anthropology Guide American Anthropological Association, 2001 Decision-making, Personhood and Dementia Deborah O'Connor, Barbara Purves, 2009 Based on papers from the Centre for Research on Personhood in Dementia workshop experts discuss the interface between dementia personhood and decision making Drawing on a range of perspectives the book forges new understandings of relationships between informal decision making and formal biomedical or legal processes for assessing competence Selfishness and Selflessness Linda L. Layne, 2020-04-09 We are said to be suffering a narcissism epidemic when the need for collective action seems more pressing than ever The traits of Selfishness and selflessness address the proper and improper relationship between one s self and others The work they do during periods of social instability and cultural change is probed in this original interdisciplinary collection Contributions range from an examination of how these concepts animated the eighteenth century anti slavery campaigners to a dissection of the way middle class mothers experiences illustrate gendered struggles over how much and to whom one is morally obliged to give Tourism and Heritage in the Chornobyl Exclusion Zone Magdalena Banaszkievicz, 2022-09-28 Tourism and Heritage in the Chornobyl Exclusion Zone CEZ uses an ethnographic lens to explore the dissonances associated with the commodification of Chornobyl s heritage The book considers the role of the guides as experience brokers focusing on the synergy between tourists and guides in the performance of heritage interpretation Banaszkievicz proposes to perceive tour guides as important actors in the bottom up construction of heritage discourse contributing to more inclusive and participatory approach to heritage management Demonstrating that the CEZ has been going through a dynamic transformation into a mass tourism attraction the book offers a critical reflection on heritagisation as a meaning making process in which the resources of the past are interpreted negotiated and recognised as a valuable legacy Applying the concepts of dissonant heritage to describe the heterogeneous character of the CEZ the book broadens the interpretative scope of dark tourism which takes on a new dimension in the context of the war in Ukraine Tourism and Heritage in the Chornobyl Exclusion Zone argues that post disaster sites such as Chornobyl can teach us a great deal about the importance of preserving cultural and natural heritage for future generations The book will be of interest to academics and students who are engaged in the study of heritage tourism memory disasters and Eastern Europe An Anthropological Bibliography of the Eastern Seaboard John Mann Goggin,1948 An Anthropological Bibliography of the Eastern Seaboard Alfred Kidder Guthe,Patricia B.
