Empowering Women Entrepreneurs United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Small Business and Entrepreneurship, 2015      Small Business Administration Microloan Program Congressional Research Congressional Research Service, 2014-12-22 The Small Business Administration's SBA's Microloan program provides direct loans to qualified nonprofit intermediary lenders who in turn provide microloans of up to 50 000 to small business owners entrepreneurs and nonprofit child care centers It also provides marketing management and technical assistance to microloan borrowers and potential borrowers The program was authorized in 1991 as a five year demonstration project and became operational in 1992 It was made permanent subject to reauthorization in 1997 The SBA's Microloan program is designed to assist women low income veteran minority entrepreneurs and small business owners and other individuals possessing the capability to operate successful business concerns by providing them small scale loans for working capital or the acquisition of materials supplies or equipment In FY2014 Microloan intermediaries provided 3 919 microloans totaling 55 7 million The average Microloan was 14 210 and had a 7 54% interest rate Critics of the SBA's Microloan program argue that it is expensive relative to alternative programs duplicative of the SBA's 7 a loan guaranty program and subject to administrative shortfalls The program's advocates argue that it assists many who otherwise would not be served by the private sector and is an important source of capital and training assistance for low income women and minority business owners Congressional interest in the Microloan program has increased in recent years primarily because microloans are viewed as a means to assist very small businesses especially women and minority owned startups to get loans that enable them to create and retain jobs Job creation always a congressional interest has taken on increased importance given continuing concerns about job growth during the current economic recovery This report opens with a discussion of the rationale provided for having a Microloan program describes the program's eligibility standards and operating requirements for lenders and borrowers and examines the arguments presented by the program's critics and advocates It then discusses P L 111 240 the Small Business Jobs Act of 2010 which increased the Microloan program's loan limit for borrowers from 35 000 to 50 000 and the aggregate loan limit for intermediaries after their first year of participation in the program from 3 5 million to 5 million The act also authorized the SBA to waive in whole or in part through FY2012 the nonfederal share requirement for loans to the Microloan program's intermediaries and for grants made to Microloan intermediaries for small business marketing management and technical assistance for up to a fiscal year The report also discusses several bills introduced in the 113th Congress H R 3191 the Expanding Opportunities to Underserved Businesses Act would have increased the Microloan program's loan limit for borrowers from 50 000 to 75 000 S 2487 the Access to Capital Access to Opportunity Act would have increased that limit to 100 000 S 2693 the Women's Small Business Ownership Act of 2014 would have among other provisions increased the Microloan program's aggregate loan limit for intermediaries after their first year of participation in the program from 5 million to 7 million The bill would have also removed the requirements that no more than 25% of Microloan technical assistance grant funds may be used to provide information and technical assistance to prospective borrowers and that no more than 25% of those funds may be used on third party contracts for the provision of technical assistance      Small Business in America Arnold Gould,2002 Small businesses are a key cog in the American economy as firms of under 100 employees represent 98% of the country s enterprises In 1953 Congress created the Small Business Administration to help small firms face the problems of large scale industry mobilisation Congress declared that preserving free and competitive markets are dependent on the vitality of small companies Since the temporary inception of the SBA the federal government has expanded its agencies for and involvement in small businesses This new book examines issues key to small business

Congress. Senate. Committee on Small Business, 1994      Oversight Hearing of the Small Business Administration's Microloan Demonstration Program United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Small Business, 1993      Crs Report for Congress Congressional Research Service: The Libr, Kate M. Manuel, 2013-11 This report discusses what constitutes a disadvantaged small business for purposes of federal and federally funded contracting programs and how firms are certified or otherwise designated as such Three primary categories of disadvantaged small businesses are currently eligible for various contracting programs 1 small businesses participating in the Small Business Administration s SBA s Minority Small Business and Capital

Ownership Development Program commonly known as the 8 a Program 8 a participants 2 small disadvantaged businesses SDBs and 3 disadvantaged business enterprises DBEs These firms are characterized as disadvantaged because they are at least 51% owned by one or more socially and economically disadvantaged individuals or groups However social and economic disadvantage is defined somewhat differently for each program Members of certain racial and ethnic groups are presumed to be socially disadvantaged for purposes of the 8 a and SDB programs while women are also presumed to be socially disadvantaged for purposes of the DBE program Similarly individuals net worth must be 250 000 or less for entry into the 8 a Program while net worth can be as high as 750 000 for newly designated SDBs or DBEs The programs for the various types of firms also differ in their operation The 8 a Program is open only Full Committee Hearing on the Small Business Administration's Microloan Program United States. Congress. House. Committee on Small Business,2007 Small Business Administration 7(a) Loan Guaranty Program Congressional Research Service,2015-02-12 The Small Business Administration SBA administers several programs to support small businesses including loan guaranty programs designed to encourage lenders to provide loans to small businesses that might not otherwise obtain financing on reasonable terms and conditions The SBA s 7 a loan guaranty program is considered the agency s flagship loan program Its name is derived from Section 7 a of the Small Business Act of 1953 P L 83 163 as amended which authorizes the SBA to provide business loans and loan guaranties to American small businesses In FY2014 the SBA approved 52 044 7 a loans totaling 19.2 billion The average approved 7 a loan amount was 368 737 Proceeds from 7 a loans may be used to establish a new business or to assist in the operation acquisition or expansion of an existing business Congressional interest in the 7 a program has increased in recent years because of concerns that small businesses might be prevented from accessing sufficient capital to enable them to assist in the economic recovery Some including President Obama argue that the SBA should be provided additional resources to assist small businesses in acquiring capital necessary to start continue or expand operations with the expectation that in so doing small businesses will create jobs Others worry about the long term adverse economic effects of spending programs that increase the federal deficit They advocate business tax reduction financial credit market reforms and fiscal restraint as the best means to help small businesses further economic growth and job creation This report discusses the rationale provided for the 7 a program the program s borrower and lender eligibility standards and program requirements and program statistics including loan volume loss rates use of proceeds borrower satisfaction and borrower demographics It also examines issues raised concerning the SBA s administration of the 7 a program including the oversight of 7 a lenders and the program s lack of outcome based performance measures In addition the report surveys congressional action taken during the 111th Congress to enhance small businesses access to capital including the providing more than 1.1 billion to temporarily subsidize the 7 a and 504 Certified Development Companies CDC loan guaranty programs fees and temporarily increase the 7 a program s maximum loan guaranty percentage to 90% funding was exhausted on January 3 2011 raising the 7 a program
