Freya doesn't understand why it's always knights who get to be brave, bold dragon slayers, so one morning she decides to go and slay one for herself. Kids will be cheering Freya on as she defies expectations and follows her own path.

Last Words from Montmartre Qiu Miaojin, 2014-06-03 An NYRB Classics Original. When the pioneering Taiwanese novelist Qiu Miaojin committed suicide in 1995 at age twenty six she left behind her unpublished masterpiece Last Words from Montmartre. Unfolding through a series of letters written by an unnamed narrator, Last Words tells the story of a passionate relationship between two young women, their sexual awakening, their gradual breakup and the devastating aftermath of their broken love. In a style that veers between extremes from self deprecation to pathos, compulsive repetition to rhapsodic musings, reticence to vulnerability, Qiu's genre bending novel is at once a psychological thriller, a sublime romance and the author's own suicide note. The letters which Qiu tells us can be read in any order leap between Paris, Taipei and Tokyo. They display wrenching insights into what it means to live between cultures, languages and genders until the genderless character Zo appears and the narrator's spiritual and physical identity is transformed. As powerfully raw and transcendent as Mishima's Confessions of a Mask, Goethe's The Sorrows of Young
