Standards Focus: Character Development

Chapters 1-3

The characters in a novel or play may be revealed to the reader or audience in a variety of ways. Your main impression of a character is formed through his/her speech or actions, physical description, mannerisms, surroundings, other characters' reactions to the character, or the writer's feelings about the character. In Chapters One-Three, Hinton introduces most of the characters from the novel, and through her writing, gives the reader a good idea of each character's attitude, background, physical appearance, and overall persona. Character development is of major importance to Hinton's writing.

Directions: To help you remember each of the characters in The Outsiders, fill in the following chart, detailing each individual character's physical appearance, as well as general attitude and personality type. Then, tell how each character's social environment has influenced him/her. An example has been started for you. As you proceed through the novel, you will want to add to your description of each character, so keep this activity to use as you read.
