Starbucks Training Manual:

The Gospel According to Starbucks Leonard Sweet, 2008-05-20 Leonard Sweet shows you how the passion that Starbucks has for creating an irresistible experience can connect you with God's stirring introduction to the experience of faith in The Gospel According to Starbucks You don't stand in line at Starbucks just to buy a cup of coffee You stop for the experience surrounding the cup of coffee Too many of us line up for God out of duty or guilt We completely miss the warmth and richness of the experience of living with God If we'd learn to see what God is doing on earth we could participate fully in the irresistible life that he offers You can learn to pay attention like never before to identify where God is already in business right in your neighborhood The doors are open and the coffee is brewing God is serving the refreshing antidote to the unsatisfying arms length spiritual life and he won't even make you stand in line The Power of Habit Charles Duhigg, 2012-02-28 Groundbreaking new research shows that by grabbing hold of the three step loop all habits form in our brains cue routine reward we can change them giving us the power to take control over our lives We are what we repeatedly do said Aristotle Excellence then is not an act but a habit On the most basic level a habit is a simple neurological loop there is a cue my mouth feels gross a routine hello Crest and a reward ahhh minty fresh Understanding this loop is the key to exercising regularly or becoming more productive at work or tapping into reserves of creativity Marketers too are learning how to exploit these loops to boost sales CEOs and coaches are using them to change how employees work and athletes compete As this book shows tweaking even one habit as long as it's the right one can have staggering effects In The Power of Habit award winning New York Times business reporter Charles Duhigg takes readers inside labs where brain scans record habits as they flourish and die classrooms in which students learn to boost their willpower and boardrooms where executives dream up products that tug on our deepest habitual urges Full of compelling narratives that will appeal to fans of Michael Lewis Jonah Lehrer and Chip and Dan Heath The Power of Habit contains an exhilarating argument our most basic actions are not the product of well considered decision making but of habits we often do not realize exist By harnessing this new science we can transform our lives The HQ Training Manual John B. write a book that's going to sell to both publishers and readers you need to know how to produce a marketable work and help it become successful. It starts the moment you have an idea. The Author Training Manual will show you how to get more creative and start looking at your work with those high standards in mind. Whether you're writing fiction or non-fiction or intend to publish traditionally or self-publish, author Nina Amir will teach you how to conduct an effective competitive analysis for your work and do a better job at delivering the goods to readers than similar books that are already on the shelf. Packed with step-by-step instructions, idea evaluations, sample business plans, editor and agent commentaries, and much more, The Author Training Manual provides the information you need to transform from aspiring writer to career author.
