Whisper Of Madness Naguib Mahfouz:

Critical Perspectives on Naguib Mahfouz Trevor Le Gassick,1991      Trials of Arab Modernity Tarek El-Ariss,2013-03
Focusing on the body as a site of rupture and signification this book shifts the paradigm for the study of modernity in the Arab context from questions of representation translation and cultural exchange to an engagement with a genealogy of symptoms and affects embodied in texts from the nineteenth century onward      Egypt ,2005      Mothers and Daughters in Arab Women's Literature Dalya Abudi,2010-11-11 This study explores the mother daughter relationship as the most fundamental and most intimate female relationship It draws on both early and contemporary writings of Arab women to illuminate the traditional and evolving nature of mother daughter relationships in Arab families and how these family dynamics reflect and influence modern Arab life      Islam and the Culture of Modern Egypt Mohammad Salama,2018-11-08 Telling a new story of modern Egypt Mohammad Salama uses textual and cinematic sources to construct a clear and accessible narrative of the dynamics of Islam and culture in the first half of the twentieth century The conflict between tradition and secular values in modern Egypt is shown in a stimulating and challenging new light as Salama bridges analysis of nationalism and its connection to Islamism and outlines the effects of secular education versus traditional Islamic teaching on varied elements of Egyptian society These include cultural production politics economic identity and gender relations All of this helps to discern the harbingers that led to Egypt's social transition from the monarchy to the republic and opens the possibility of Islam as an inspiring and inspirational force This illuminating provocative and informative study will be of use to anyone interested in the period whether general readers students or researchers      whispering in the dimness of words Faisal Alalawi, A distant darkness glows with a faint light guiding us toward a land still forming from layers of memory and history To hear Ghaliya Al Said retrace the fragments of her journey is to enter a space of longing and estrangement where the narrow alleys of old Muscat intertwine with the vast horizons of exile These are not mere confessions but fragments of a human story seeking its roots amid the storms reshaping itself in the mirror of writing      A Study Guide for Naguib Mahfouz's "Half a Day" Gale, Cengage Learning,2016-07-14 A Study Guide for Naguib Mahfouz's Half a Day excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Short Stories for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Short Stories for Students for all of your research needs      Naguib Mahfouz Michael Beard,Adnan Haydar,1993-10 Scholars of Arabic language and literature show how renowned Egyptian fiction writer Mahfouz's work transcends its setting in the ancient alleys of Cairo and speaks to all people in all cultures The collection of essays originated in a symposium at the U of Massachusetts recognizing Mahfouz's receipt of the 1988 Nobel Prize for literature Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR      Transformative Communication Studies Omar Swartz,2008-01-01 This interdisciplinary collection of essays charts intersections between communication cultural studies and a variety of emergent emancipatory and liberatory discourses Every essay attempts in one way or another to speak to the following questions What would a theory of liberation look like that is premised on a communication view of the world How would such a view expand and even redefine our understanding of liberation Finally how would such a view enlarge our understanding of what is collectively communally and organizationally possible In other words the chapters articulate what can be loosely considered a humanist theory of communication and praxis The goal is to move beyond discourses of liberation that are grounded in essentialist assumptions and to move the conversation toward an engaged criticism on cultural and social levels that facilitates and encourages progressive action This edited collection thus has as its goal a theory of human liberation grounded in communication as a resource for social and spiritual transformation The chapters comprise a mix of conceptual and applied studies that interrogate the communicative practices that naturalize our hierarchical world reifying and stultifying our moral and political imaginations As an antidote to this problem the contributors consider the importance of uncertainty and contingency in the development of human potential Rather than fearing uncertainty and contingency and allowing that fear to control us contributors argue that we should find within these conditions the source of our humanity and the strength to question and resist unjust social reifications When we do this we will rediscover the power of communication and regain an agency and control over our lives We then can start the difficult but humanizing process of constructing the world anew Case study exemplars of this construction thus are showcased
