James' River Guide Uriah Pierson James, 1857

James Joyce's Manuscripts and Letters at the University of Buffalo, 1962-06-30 The approximately 20 000 pages of Joyce manuscripts and letters in the Lockwood Memorial Library of the University of Buffalo here catalogued by Dr Spielberg offer scholars and critics much unpublished and unsifted material for the explication and examination of Joyce's individual works as well as the raw material necessary for a detailed exploration of James Joyce's creative process. The scope of the Buffalo Joyce Collection is vast, spanning the full range of Joyce's writing career from 1900 to 1940, from his Epiphanies to possible revisions for Finnegans Wake. Dr. Spielberg's work in compiling the present catalogue of Joyce's own writings and letters in the collection now provides for Joyceans a guide to what up until now has been mainly uncharted territory. The manuscripts, workbooks, notebooks, sketches, schemas, notes, early and late drafts, fair copies, typescripts, galley and page proofs, errata, translations, and letters have been divided into ten major categories: Epiphanies, A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man, Exiles, Verses, Ulysses, Finnegans Wake, Criticism, Notebooks, Miscellaneous Manuscripts, and Letters from Joyce. Each item has been described and identified following a uniform format for the pertaining facts: title, collation, pagination, contents, other markings, dating, publication, and notes. In his introduction to the catalogue, the author describes the Buffalo Joyce Collection itself, giving the history of its growth, its extent, and holdings. In discussing the manuscripts, he calls particular attention to the Finnegans Wake Workbooks MSS VI A, B, C, and D, which he comments are probably the strangest manuscripts in existence, even for so strange a book as Finnegans Wake. The apparent disorder and lack of organization of these workbooks is a false impression. Where the reader of the workbooks stumbles and bombinates through what seems to be utter blackness, Joyce danced and skipped with ease. What to us seems chaos was neatness and method to Joyce. It is Dr. Spielberg's hope that the manuscripts he has catalogued will, when examined in detail, offer a key to the better understanding of the hides and hints and misses in prints in the writings of the most controversial figure of twentieth-century literature. Catalogue

Montgomery Ward, 1928 A Bibliography of the Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam Ambrose George Potter, 1929 1897
Sears, Roebuck & Co. Catalogue Sears, Roebuck and Company, 2007-09-17 A dazzling trove for students of Americana Time
A consumer's guide to local government Martin Minogue, 1978-12-01 Montgomery Ward Catalogue of 1895

Montgomery Ward & Co., Montgomery Ward, 1969-08-01 Tea gowns, bleached damask and yards of flannel and pillow case, lace stereoscopes, books of gospel hymns and ballroom gems, the New Improved Singer Sewing Machine, side saddles, anti-freezing well pumps, Windsor Stoves, milk skimmers, straight-edged razors, high-button shoes, woven cane carpet beaters, spittoons, the Studebaker Road Cart, commodes and washstands, the Fire Fly single-wheel hoe, cultivator and plow, combined flat irons and ice cream freezers. What man, woman, or child of the 1890s could resist these offerings of the Montgomery Ward catalogue, the one book that was read avidly year after year by millions of Americans on farms and in small towns across the nation. The Montgomery Ward catalogue provides one of the few irrefutably accurate pictures of what life was really like in the gay nineties, for it described and illustrated almost anything that anybody could possibly need or want in the way of store-bought goods. In fact, in that pre-department store era, it was usually the only source for such goods. Imagine if Montgomery Ward had issued an illustrated catalogue in the days of Louis XIV or Elizabeth I or Charlemagne: what insights would we have into the daily life of the common folk, the farmers and shopkeeper, housewives and schoolchildren, what sources of information for historians and scholars collectors and dealers what models for artists and designers In 1895 Montgomery Ward was the oldest largest and most representative mail order house in the country The brainchild of a former traveling salesman it issued its first catalogue in 1872 a one page listing of items By 1895 the catalogue reprinted here had grown to 624 pages and listed some 25 000 items almost all of them illustrated with live drawings Montgomery Ward was by then a multi million dollar business that profoundly affected the American economy and since it reached the most isolated farms and backwoods cabins its effect on American culture was almost as great Now once again available it is our truest most unbiased record of the spirit of the 1890s An introduction on the history of the Montgomery Ward Company and its catalogue has been prepared especially for this edition by Boris Emmet Ph D Johns Hopkins a foremost expert on retail merchandising His monumental work Catalogues and Counters has long been recognized as a landmark in the study of American economic history
