ARTHUR RACKHAM, 1925 Where the Blue Begins Christopher Morley, 2008-06-01 A toast proposed at the Johnson Birthday Celebration held at the Three Crowns Inn Lichfield in September 1906 In rising to propose this toast I cannot ignore what must be in many of your minds the recollection that last year it was submitted by a very dear friend of my own who alas has now gone to his rest I mean Dr Richard Garnett 3 Many of you who heard him in this place will recall with kindly memories that venerable scholar I am one of those who in the interval have stood beside his open grave and I know you will permit me to testify here to the fact that rarely has such brilliant scholarship been combined with so kindly a nature and with so much generosity to other workers in the literary field One may sigh that it is not possible to perpetuate for all time for the benefit of others the vast mass of learning which such men as Dr Garnett are able to accumulate One may lament even more that one is not able to present in some concrete form as an example to those who follow his fine qualities of heart and mind his generous faculty for helping lame dogs over stiles
