Bureaucracy's Masters and Minions Eleanor L. Schiff,2020-07-23 In Bureaucracy s Masters and Minions The Politics of Controlling the U S Bureaucracy the author argues that political control of the bureaucracy from the president and the Congress is largely contingent on an agency s internal characteristics of workforce composition workforce responsibilities and workforce organization Through a revised principal agent framework the author explores an agent principal model to use the agent as the starting point of analysis The author tests the agent principal model across 14 years and 132 bureaus and finds that both the president and the House of Representatives exert influence over the bureaucracy but agency characteristics such as the degree of politization among the workforce the type of work the agency is engaged in and the hierarchical nature of the agency affects how agencies are controlled by their political masters In a detailed case study of one agency the U S Department of Education the author finds that education policy over a 65 year period is elite led and that that hierarchical nature of the department conditions political principals influence This book works to overcome three hurdles that have plagued bureaucratic studies the difficulty of uniform sampling across the bureaucracy the overuse of case studies and the overreliance on the principal agent theoretical approach Thinking in the Spirit Douglas Jacobsen,2003-11-20 This book is about the boisterous beginnings of the American Pentecostal movement and the ideas that defined that movement during those formative years It follows a group of men who rethought the Christian faith in light of their new experience of God Thinking in the Spirit aims to provide scholars and general readers who know little or nothing about Pentecostalism with an introduction to the ideas of the movement s most articulate early spokespersons and to provide Pentecostals with a non judgmental historical source to help them in their theological reflections Douglas Jacobsen focuses on the individuals who formed the original brain trust of this now gigantic religious movement In a 25 year burst of creative energy at the beginning of the 20th century these leaders articulated almost all the basic theological ideas that continue to define the Pentecostal message in the United States and around the world Dialogue and Literature Michael Steven

Macovski,1994 Extending and reframing the works of Bakhtin Gadamer Ong and Foucault with particular emphasis on Bakhtin s late essays Macovski constructs a theoretical model of literary dialogue and applies it to a range of Romantic texts In reconsidering specific works within the context of cultural heuristics rhetorical theory and literary history Macovski redefines Romantic discourse as both extratextual and agonistic He thereby re evaluates such Romantic topics as the history of the autotelic self the proliferation of lyric orality and the nineteenth century critique of rhetoric He examines poetry by Wordsworth and Coleridge as well as such nineteenth century prose works as Frankenstein Wuthering Heights and Heart of Darkness Hearings United States.
