Social Justice Counseling Rita Chi-Ying Chung, Frederic P. Bemak, 2012 Social Justice Counseling is the next step toward alleviating the injustices faced by individuals in society and it is a natural extension of multicultural counseling Issues of social justice are dominating conferences across the mental health disciplines with a greater focus on alleviating broader social inequities such as equity access and fairness for each individual At a micro level social justice issues play out in the form of gender discrimination sexual harassment equal access to education fair housing and more Traditionally counselors have been focused on the individual however in recent years there has been a shift for all mental health professionals to address issues of social class race and ethnicity and more This books offers a supplement to important issues regarding social justice and will highly enhance the content taught in multicultural courses The authors are leading authorities on social justice counseling and have led the way to create a specialization in social justice counseling at their school at George Mason University This book is the first to bring all these concepts together tie them to multiculturalism and offer personal applications and tools for mental health professionals It is theoretical yet highly practical in offering concrete steps toward becoming more social justice oriented Provided by publisher
