Reflections on Poetry and the World

Emily Grosholz, 2020-12-18. This collection brings together 40 years of essays about poetry and literature written by Emily Grosholz. The first section includes essays about some of her favorite poets and thinkers in the United States, England, France, and Germany. The second section brings poetry into relation with ethics, politics, and practical deliberation, and the third considers it alongside science and imagination. The last section is an homage to The Hudson Review for whom she has served as an Advisory Editor for many years. As a philosopher, Emily Grosholz has written and thought about feminism, racism, and mathematics and science, which has led her to admire all the more the distinct wisdom of poetry. These essays show how poetry reorganized language and memory, eros and experience, and time and place, and how and why it deepens our understanding of life.
