Never blame anyone in your life.
Good people give you happiness.
Bad people give you experience.
Worst people give you a lesson.
Best people give you memories.

Life Lessons from Zig Ziglar

1. If you can't drive it, you can't achieve it.
2. A goal properly said is halfway reached.
3. If you want to reach a goal, you must take the "back way" in your own mind before you actually arrive at your goal.
4. Expect the best. Prepare for the worst. Capitalize on what comes.
5. Every choice you make has an end result.
6. It's not what you've got that counts; it's what you can do with it.
7. If you don't see yourself as a winner, you won't win.
8. Positive thinking will let you do everything better than negative thinking will.
9. You cannot eliminate the situations in life, but you can take away the attitudes to the those situations.
10. If you turn from defeat, you haven't really lost.
11. Failure is a detour, not a dead-end corner.
12. Remember that failure is only a word with no meaning.
13. People often say education doesn't last, but when you're educated it's always with you.

FAILURE IS A DETOUR, NOT A DEAD-END
STREET.

Lack of direction, not lack of time,
is the problem. We all have twenty-four hour days.

— Zig Ziglar

Far too many people have no idea of
what they can do
because all they have been told is what they can't do.

In Zig Ziglar chronicles another kind of journey his own transformation from a struggling not terribly successful salesman to the sales champion of several different companies and finally to his current position as one of the world's best known and most highly regarded motivational speakers and trainers. As he describes his experiences he brings to life the essence of his teachings. You can have everything in life you want if you will just help enough other people get what they want. At the heart of Ziglar's story are the people who taught him the importance of balancing a commitment to hard work with compassion for others. His first teacher was his mother who raised him alone after the early death of his father and introduced him to the principles and values he has honored for the rest of his life. Her lessons were reinforced by many others from the men and women who became his business mentors to the friends and spiritual leaders who comforted and supported him when things got tough. Paying tribute to each of them, Ziglar zeroes in on the philosophy and traits that have enabled him to achieve success in business and in his personal life: discipline, hard work, common sense, integrity, commitment, and an infectious sense of humor. Ziglar's speaking engagements and seminars, along with a wide array of audio and video materials, books, and training manuals, have helped to trigger positive changes in small businesses, Fortune 500 companies, U.S. government agencies, nonprofit associations, religious organizations, schools, and prisons. At once engaging and enlightening, Zig provides a riveting portrait of the man who has achieved so much by embracing the simple but profound goal of helping others.
