is a large city state with area of 1483 sq km and a population of 16 7 million where more than two third of its area as urban Rest of the area is fast urbanizing For a city like this the planning process is challenging and magnitude of problems is enormous It should be noted that Municipal Corporation of Delhi initiated projects of preparation of Local Area Plan for 36 wards through various planning consultants to address planning issues and problems on identifying the ground realities Development in Delhi is guided by the Master Plan 2021 and various Zonal Development Plans The increase in urban population as a whole and increased migration to Delhi has led to a number of planning and development issues as land are a scarce resource in Delhi bounded by other states having their own development controls and guidelines In order to counter the ill effects of urban problem diagnosis and rational planning model the planners and policy makers of Delhi started to engage public in various states of planning and plan implementation in various forms and degrees The engagement of public in planning has stated long back in 1962 when the first Master Plan for Delhi was prepared Even after 50 years of planning for people the planners and policy makers thought for evolving planning with people approach in planning and this culminated in Delhi in the form of concept of Local Area Plan In 2005 pilot project for the preparation of Local Area Plan got initiated and got completed and the result was not satisfactory and again in 2010 pilot project for the preparation of Local Area Plan started and by 2012 it got completed It should be noted that Delhi is one of the Indian city to have a Master Plan for controlling urban growth and development The need of the people and demand for the development goes hand in hand and this lead to the participation of the public in the plan making process so as to entertain their grievances and make them partner in the development Poetry of Kings Allison Busch,2011-10-07 This in depth study of the classical Hindi tradition brings the world of Mughal era poetry and court culture alive for an English readership Allison Busch draws on the perspectives of literary social and intellectual history to elucidate one of premodern India s most significant textual traditions documenting the dramatic rise of a new type of professional Hindi writer while providing critical insight into the motives that animated this literary community and its patrons Busch examines how riti literature served as an important aesthetic and political resource in the richly multicultural world of Mughal India and provides for the first time in a Western language a detailed study of the fascinating oeuvre of Keshavdas whose seminal Rasikpriya Handbook for poetry connoisseurs 1591 was the catalyst for a new Hindi classicism that attracted a spectacular following in the leading courts of early modern India The circulation of Hindi literature among diverse communities during this period is testament to a remarkable pluralism that cannot be understood in terms of the nationalist logic that has constrained modern Hindi and Urdu to be Hindu and Muslim languages since the nineteenth century With the cultural reforms ushered in by colonialism north Indians repudiated the classical traditions of the courtly past a complex process given extended treatment in the final chapter Busch provides valuable insight into more than two centuries of Hindi courtly culture Poetry of Kings also showcases the importance of bringing precolonial archives into dialogue with current debates of postcolonial theory
