recommendations to improve the UK approach for future instances of benchmark manipulation The work fills an important gap in the literature by comparing and evaluating the laws and enforcement policies pertaining to the use of competition law in counteracting benchmark manipulation in the UK EU and US It argues that competition law is an effective enforcement tool when used in the financial services sector and that it provides regulators with a wide range of enforcement options when a breach of competition law is established The book will be a valuable resource for academics researchers and policymakers working in the areas of financial crime competition law comparative law and criminal justice Bowker's Complete Video Directory ,2000 There is Another Way! Margaret A.
