

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space weapons and launch them?	That U.S. suspend the prohibition of launching nuclear weapons	Not really
2. Would anyone benefit from the launch and deployment of such weapons?	They would certainly produce advantages that were worth the costs of building, launching, and maintaining them	They might trigger a race to build countermeasures, which would be wasteful. Also, the launch of nuclear weapons, planned or accidental, would be a disaster for everyone on Earth.
3. Would anyone disagree with this?	Not really	Some might disagree with the prohibition on the development of such weapons.
4. Would the two nations agree to such limits on their military activities?	Yes, the governments had to negotiate. There had to be a common strategy.	The American public was concerned and would not take a unilateral decision.

2. Suppose the agreement simply set up the program, without these (other) provisions. What would happen? Would that be a good thing?

Discuss. Explain. What provisions do you think are needed?

What would it be necessary to do that you think is best?
