The Abundant University Michael D. Smith, 2023-09-19 Why our current system of higher education is financially and morally unsustainable and how to address the crisis with the creative implementation of digital technologies For too long our system of higher education has been defined by scarcity scarcity in enrollment scarcity in instruction and scarcity in credentials In addition to failing students professionally this system has exacerbated social injustice and socioeconomic stratification across the globe In The Abundant University Michael D Smith argues that the only way to create a financially and morally sustainable higher education system is by embracing digital technologies for enrolling instructing and credentialing students the same technologies that we have seen create abundance in access to resources in industry after industry The Abundant University explains how we got our current system why it's such an expensive inefficient mess and how a system based on exclusivity cannot foster inclusivity Smith challenges the resistance to digital technologies that we have already seen among numerous institutions citing the examples of faculty resistance toward digital learning platforms While acknowledging the understandable self preservation instinct of our current system of residential education Smith makes a case for how technology can engender greater educational opportunity and create changes that will benefit students employers and society as a whole

Environmental Communication and Conciliation Geo Takach, 2025-11-13 This book explores methods of bringing environmentalist art based and Indigenous ways of knowing and being into dialogue to improve relationships with the Earth and Her First Peoples Geo Takach argues that two of the greatest crimes committed by humanity environmental devastation and the continued dishonour dispossession and attempted eradication of Indigenous peoples are entwined and need to be addressed together Rooted in communication and cultural studies this book explores ways to bring environmental arts based and Indigenous ways of knowing and being into dialogue towards improving relationships with the Earth and Her First Peoples Through this multimodal exploration the book builds an analytical foundation for that alliance by considering causes and challenges common to ecological and human colonization Joined by a generous array of Indigenous and non Indigenous knowledge keepers artists scholars and citizens Takach then demonstrates how we can interweave environmental arts based and Indigenous perspectives and collaborative meaning making in our communications to inspire what he calls environmental conciliation
