

8th Grade US History

Syllabus 2022-2023

Teacher Name: Gary Hollister

Email address: ghollister@gcboe.us

Course Description:

This course will cover Early U.S. History from early colonization in the 1600s to westward expansion, ending around 1877. The material will cover the Social Studies standards listed by the Tennessee Department of Education using a variety of media and other resources to analyze historical events that have shaped our nation.

History is very subjective; two people looking at a historical event may see things very differently. It is vital to full understanding and appreciation of historical events that students not only share their views with the class but understand and appreciate that others may not see things as they do. Additionally, in order to be fully understood, history must be viewed through the prism of historical context and not just compared to today's societal standards. It is not enough to only know what happened, but why it happened, what its immediate effect was, and what - if any - are the lingering effects today.

Course Objectives:

By the end of the school year, students will be able to:

- Identify key figures in our nation's history and list their accomplishments/contributions.
- Identify key events in our nation's history and explain their impact.
- Differentiate between primary and secondary sources in regards to historical material
- Analyze primary and secondary sources and understand them in context.
- Know and understand the difference between historic and historical.
- Utilize technology to research and report on historical events and persons.

Classroom Guidelines:

- Discipline: Students will be held to the Giles County discipline policy guidelines.
- Attendance: Students will be held to the Giles County attendance policy guidelines.
- Electronic devices: Students should have all cell phones, tablets, or other personal devices (other than their assigned Chromebook) turned OFF when they come into the classroom.
- Other devices: Unless otherwise advised, all items such as fidget spinners and other "focus" toys are STRICTLY prohibited and will be taken up on the first offense.
- Being prepared is a must! Students will be required to have all materials necessary for each class; failure to do so will impact their ability to perform adequately and meet the stated objectives for the year. Students who regularly fail to come to class with the required items will be penalized for their participation.
- Being on time is a must! Students will be required to be on time to class; there is adequate time between bells for students to make any trips to their lockers or bathroom facilities. Once the bell rings, students will only be allowed out in extreme circumstances.
- Class participation is a must! Students will be engaged in small-group and whole-classroom discussions and assignments, and their participation - or lack thereof - will be considered in their grades.
- Respect for each other's property is also a must! All students will treat others' property as if it were their own. TRANSLATION: IF IT ISN'T YOURS, DON'T TOUCH IT!

Grades:

- Students will be assessed through a variety of methods; homework, quizzes, chapter tests, quarterly tests, projects, and even on-the-spot verbal assessments will be used to determine student understanding.
