Urban Planning in a Multicultural Society Michael A. Burayidi, 2000 Cities and the Politics of Difference Michael Burayidi, 2015-11-26 Demographic change and a growing sensitivity to the diversity of urban communities have increasingly led planners to recognize the necessity of planning for diversity Edited by Michael A Burayidi Cities and the Politics of Difference offers a guide for making diversity a cornerstone of planning practice The essays in this collection cover the practical and theoretical issues that surround this transformation discussing ways of planning for inclusive and multicultural cities enhancing the cultural competence of planners and expanding the boundaries of planning for multiculturalism to include dimensions of diversity other than ethnicity and religion including sexual and gender minorities and Indigenous communities The advice of the contributors on how planners should integrate considerations of diversity in all its forms and guises into practice and theory will be valuable to scholars and practitioners at all levels of government Multicultural Cities Mohammad Abdul Qadeer, 2016-01-01 In Multicultural Cities Mohammad Abdul Qadeer offers a tour of three of North America's premier multicultural metropolises Toronto New York and Los Angeles Dialogues in Urban and Regional Planning Bruce Stiftel, Vanessa Watson, 2005 Dialogues in Urban and Regional Planning offers a selection of the best urban planning scholarship from each of the world's planning scholarship communities The papers presented illustrate the concerns and the discourse of planning scholarship communities and provide a glimpse into planning theory and practice by planning academics around the world Readers will find this collection valuable in opening new avenues for exploration This book has been put together by the Global Planning Education Association Network GPEAN The nine member associations of GPEAN are the Association of African Planning Schools AAPS the Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning ACSP in USA the Association of Canadian University Planning Programs ACUPP the Association of European Schools of Planning AESOP the Association of Latin American Schools of Urban Planning ALEUP the National Association of Urban and Regional Post graduate and Research Programs ANPUR in Brazil the Australia and New Zealand Association of Planning Schools ANZAPS the Association for the Development of Planning Education and Research APERAU and the Asian Planning Schools Association APSA Mapping Possibility Leonie Sandercock, 2023-01-27 Mapping Possibility traces the intertwined intellectual professional and emotional life of Leonie Sandercock With an impressive career spanning nearly half a century as an educator researcher artist and practitioner Sandercock is one of the leading figures in community planning dedicating her life to pursuing social cultural and environmental justice through her work In this book Leonie Sandercock reflects on her past writings and films which played an important role in redefining the field in more progressive directions both in theory and practice It includes previously published essays in conjunction with insightful commentaries prefacing each section and four new essays two discussing Sandercock's most recent work on a feature film project with Indigenous partners Innovative visionary and audacious Leonie's community based scholarship and practice in the fields of urban planning and community development have engaged some of the most intractable issues of our time inequality discrimination and racism Through award winning books and films she has influenced the planning field to become more culturally fluent addressing diversity and difference through structural change This book draws a map of hope for emerging planners dedicated to equity justice and sustainability It will inspire the next generation of community planners as well as current practitioners and students in planning cultural studies urban studies architecture and community development

Towards Cosmopolis Leonie Sandercock,1998 From Polis to Metropolis men and women have continued to struggle to perfect our cities Urban history presents a picture of grand ideals and devastating failures Towards Cosmopolis explores why we have failed and how we could succeed in building an urban Utopia with a difference Globalization civil society feminism and post colonialism are the forces ever shifting and changing our cities We need a new vision to face such change Sandercock pulls down the pillars of modernist city planning and raises in their place a new post modern planning a planning sensitive to community environment and cultural diversity

Transcultural Cities Jeffrey Hou,2013 Transcultural Cities collects case studies of intercultural exchange and the urban transformations that have accompanied it Jeffrey Hou and a talented team of multidisciplinary scholars argue for a more critical and open view of cities urban places and placemaking as vehicles for cross cultural understanding

The Ethnically Diverse City Frank Eckardt,John Eade,2011-01-01

Multimedia Explorations in Urban Policy and Planning Leonie Sandercock,Giovanni Attili,2010-04-10 The book is a collection of essays exploring the potential of multimedia to enrich and transform the planning field By multimedia the authors refer to a broad range of new information and communication technologies from film and video to digital ethnography and the internet which are opening up new possibilities in planning practices processes pedagogy and research The authors document the ways in which these ICTs can expand the language of planning and the creativity of planners can evoke the lived experience the spirit memories desires of our 21st century mongrel cities by engaging with stories and storytelling and can democratise planning practices The text is epistemologically radical in presenting an argument for the importance of multiple languages ways of knowing in the planning field and making the connection between this epistemology and the almost infinite potential of Multimedia to provide varied tools to accomplish this transformation displacing the supremacy of the rational linear and hierarchical with more open playful and imaginative approaches Each of the authors brings practical experience with different forms of Multimedia use and reflects on the different potentialities offered by Multimedia for critical intervention in urban and regional issues and the power dynamics embedded in such interventions

Profession of City Planning, the Lloyd Rodwin,2000-01-01 In thirty four provocative and insightful chapters the nation s leading planners present a definitive assessment of fifty years of city planning and establish a benchmark for the profession for the next fifty years The book appraises what planners do and how well they do it how and why their current activities differ from past practices and how much and in what ways planners have or have not enhanced the quality of urban life and contributed to the intellectual capital of the field How have the goals values and practices of planners changed What do planners say about their roles and the problems they confront What is the relevance of their skills from design capabilities and environmental savvy to intermediate and long term perspectives and the pragmatics of implementation The contributors seeking to answer these questions include Anthony Downs Nathan Glazer Philip B Herr Judith E Innes Terry S Szold Lawrence J Vale and Sam Bass Warner Jr The Profession of City Planning contrasts with the main changes in the US over the second half of the twentieth century in city planning Sector images of the practice and effects of planning on housing transportation and the environment as well as the development of economic tools are also discussed

Sustainable Intercultural Urbanism at the Service of the African City of Tomorrow Esoh Elamé, 2022-06-03 Most African cities are human settlements that lack the systems needed for effective land use planning In fact the disorganization that prevails has become so complex that the concept of urbanism itself has been called into question This book highlights the need to restore urban planning in African cities through sustainable development and interculturality Furthermore it addresses the balance of power between urban planning and sustainable development and explores the historical and postcolonial aspects of urban planning in African cities A case study focusing on the development of sustainable cities and neighborhoods in the M Zab Valley is also included as well as topics such as urban greening climatic threats and the problem of state agro industrial land transactions which compete with sustainable urban planning Sustainable Intercultural Urbanism at the Service of the African City of Tomorrow is a valuable reference for researchers and practitioners interested in urban issues in African cities These cities in particular sub Saharan cities have long been excluded from any discourse on sustainable cities and urban planning this book places the focus on these cities and acknowledges their varied urban realities The intention is to spark a new debate on sustainable urban planning in African cities based on intercultural sustainable urbanism which is key to thinking about and building ecological intercultural compact intelligent and postcolonial cities

The Profession of City Planning Lloyd Rodwin, 2017-09-29 In thirty four provocative and insightful chapters the nation s leading planners present a definitive assessment of fifty years of city planning and establish a benchmark for the profession for the next fifty years The book appraises what planners do and how well they do it how and why their current activities differ from past practices and how much and in what ways planners have or have not enhanced the quality of urban life and contributed to the intellectual capital of the field How have the goals values and practices of planners changed What do planners say about their roles and the problems they confront What is the relevance of their skills from design capabilities and environmental savvy to intermediate and long term perspectives and the pragmatics of implementation The contributors seeking to answer these questions include Anthony Downs Nathan Glazer Philip B Herr Judith E Innes Terry S Szold Lawrence J Vale and Sam Bass Warner Jr The Profession of City Planning contrasts with the main changes in the US over the second half of the twentieth century in city planning Sector images of the practice and effects of planning on housing transportation and the environment as well as the development of economic tools are also discussed Urban Street Design & Planning A. Pratelli, 2013-12-04 This second book of the series on Transport Systems and Traffic Engineering addresses operational safety costs benefits control and geometrical aspects associated with street design and roadway network planning in urban areas The design features and planning goals consider urban sensitive solutions for coping with motorized traffic pedestrians and public transport passengers Great emphasis is placed on the critical interactions involved with traffic safety problems The included papers offer a variety of sample studies and developed projects and provide useful references to academics and traffic engineers One of the most noteworthy characteristics of this book is that the reported experiences come from different national policies and standard requirements as well as local guidelines As such it provides a well structured and consistent book that will be of great interest to those working in this field The Intercultural City Giovanna Marconi, Elena Ostanel, 2016-03-31

The resulting cultural differences can often create problems and conflict In Europe alone the sheer scale of migration is forcing the issue to the top of the political agenda The Intercultural City brings together scholars from a range of disciplines including urban studies geography planning sociology political science and spatial design to explore both the failings of existing policies to manage diversity and to examine how one might begin to create ways to remove obstacles and enhance the integration of migrants and minorities Combining fresh theoretical insights with studies from cities in Europe North America Asia and Africa The Intercultural City offers a timely and important contribution to the challenge of managing diversity in the city of the twenty first century Rebuilding Sustainable Communities in Iraq Adenrele Awotona, 2009-05-27 The scene in Iraq is most troubling and further failure therein especially failure in sustainable reconstruction will compound the tragedy and bring grievous harm to too many in Iraq the United States the Middle East and the Western world Yet the current efforts at reconstruction cannot succeed as we seem to be making many of the same mistakes that were made post invasion Simply put a national occupying power cannot reconstruct a massive societal vacuum by working only top down Reconstruction is not the simple reversal of destruction Sustainability requires serious localized reconstitution of localized community infrastructure Accordingly in order to explore how Iraqi communities could be rebuilt in a manner that promotes social justice economic and political sustainability and the full participation of all stakeholders the Center for Rebuilding Sustainable Communities after Disasters at the University of Massachusetts at Boston USA hosted a four day international conference of Iraqi and international scholars and practitioners in July 2007 This volume collects some of the papers that were presented at the conference Amongst the topics that the contributing authors have explored are the following the role of organizations and institutions in defining strategies for sustainable rebuilding of community rebuilding the Iraqi Oil Industry and successful project strategies in Iraq s Kurdistan region The book concludes with a presentation of a number of international perspectives and their lessons for Iraq These studies spring from Afghanistan the United States of America and Africa Encountering the City Jonathan Darling, Helen F. Wilson, 2016-07-15 Encountering the City provides a new and sustained engagement with the concept of encounter Drawing on cutting edge theoretical work classic writings on the city and rich empirical examples this volume demonstrates why encounters are significant to urban studies politically philosophically and analytically Bringing together a range of interests from urban multicultural systems of economic regulation security and suspicion to more than human geographies soundscapes and spiritual experience Encountering the City argues for a more nuanced understanding of how the concept of encounter is used This interdisciplinary collection thus provides an insight into how scholars writing on and in the city mobilise theorise and challenge the concept of encounter through empirical cases taken from Africa Asia Australia Europe North America and South America These cases go beyond conventional accounts of urban conviviality to demonstrate how encounters destabilise rework and produce difference fold together complex temporalities materialise power and transform political relations In doing so the collection retains a critical eye on the forms of regulation containment and inequality that shape the taking place of urban encounter Encountering the City is a valuable resource for students and researchers alike

Urban Research Monitor ,1998 A Research Agenda for Sustainable Cities and Communities Kes McCormick,James Evans,Yuliya Voytenko Palgan,Niki Frantzeskaki,2023-08-14 Global in its outlook this Research Agenda systematically reviews and critiques existing research on sustainable cities calling for greater engagement with a diversity of perspectives It interrogates foundational assumptions in the field and offers reframed perspectives on sustainability Chapters also explore diverse approaches actors and domains locating emerging dynamics and new directions for practitioners

Trespassers? Willow Lung-Amam,2017-05-16 Beyond the gilded gates of Google little has been written about the suburban communities of Silicon Valley Over the past several decades the region s booming tech economy spurred rapid population growth increased racial diversity and prompted an influx of immigration especially among highly skilled and educated migrants from China Taiwan and India At the same time the response to these newcomers among long time neighbors and city officials revealed complex attitudes in even the most well heeled and diverse communities Trespassers takes an intimate look at the everyday life and politics inside Silicon Valley against a backdrop of these dramatic demographic shifts At the broadest level it raises questions about the rights of diverse populations to their own piece of the suburban American Dream It follows one community over several decades as it transforms from a sleepy rural town to a global gateway and one of the nation s largest Asian American majority cities There it highlights the passionate efforts of Asian Americans to make Silicon Valley their home by investing in local schools neighborhoods and shopping centers It also provides a textured tale of the tensions that emerge over this suburb s changing environment With vivid storytelling Trespassers uncovers suburbia as an increasingly important place for immigrants and minorities to register their claims for equality and inclusion
