Topic 7.1: Shifting Power After 1900

Learning Objective Explain how internal and external factors contributed to change in various states after 1900.	Historical Developments The West dominated the global political order at the beginning of the 20th-century, but both land-based and maritime empires gave way to new states by the century's end. The older, land-based Ottoman, Russian, and Qing empires collapsed due to a combination of internal and external factors. These changes in Russia eventually led to communist revolution. States around the world challenged the existing political and social order, including the Mexican Revolution that arose as a result of political crisis.	- Describe the factors that led to the collapse of the Ottoman Empire. - The reduction in both agricultural and economic output - Taking out loans from European countries - Nationalist efforts that failed and resulted in land loss - Not being able to industrialize - rivalry with the industrialized West - Describe the factors that led to the collapse of the Russian Empire. - Growing discontent among the poor and working class - Losing the Crimean and Russo-Japanese War - Fuels and food shortages - Spread and popularity of communism - Industrialized Western nations beating them in war - Describe the factors that led to the collapse of the Qing Dynasty in China. - Food and fuel shortages - Boxer Rebellion directed toward foreigners - Spheres of Influence - Revolutions of 1911 by Sun Yat-Sen - What factors led to the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia in 1917? - To urge the tsar for improved working conditions and universal suffrage, thousands of workers peacefully marched. - Their demand was for more pay. - World War I - Russo-Japanese War - What were some of the outcomes of the Bolshevik Revolution? What changes did it bring? Members of the Bolshevik political party were able to take control of Petrograd, the Russian capital. They also won the Russian Civil War. - How did the Mexican Revolution (1910 and beyond) challenge the existing political and social order in Mexico? Land redistribution, universal suffrage, and public education were among the objectives of Mexico's 1917 new constitution.
