Inside Mtv R. Serge Denisoff, This book is an insight into the evolution of the cablevision phenomena MTV VH 1 and their competitors Denisoff presents his study from the perspectives of media economics boardroom politics and the recording industry s dilemma how to promote recorded products with video clips This text focuses upon the processes involved in the development and growth of the product MTV to date and the medium cablevision Choice Instde MTV by a leading authority on the American music business examines the world of cablecasting the evolution of WASEC MTV VH1 and some of their competitors The strategies personalities and the contents that placed MTV on the road to a dominant position are described The many controversies surrounding the channel are thoroughly detailed and misinformation on the subject is corrected Little Man Chester Brown, 2021-04-29 One of the medium s brilliant mavericks time com The Little Man Short Strips 1980 1995 is a collection of short story works by the celebrated and bestselling Louis Riel cartoonist Chester Brown

From his early experimental comedic surrealism to his later autobiographical and essay strips we see not a major talent in development but a fully realized storytelling virtuoso Included are his early autobiographical stories Helder a story about a young man's tentativeness when pursuing a woman Showing Helder a blow by blow account of the construction of the previous story and Danny a strangely compelling moment by moment account of Brown waking up and trying to avoid contact with a fellow rooming house tenant Other standouts are Brown's controversial essay on schizophrenia specifically his own mother's and various medical views on this baffling disease and the title story The Little Man a Freudian classroom romp fantasy by a adolescent Brown that ties into the schizophrenia essay in a surprising way The acclaimed compendium culled mostly from his groundbreaking comic book series Yummy Fur provides a fascinating insight into Brown's psyche he rounds out the collection with exacting notes on each story

Grunts View James Carlisle, 2010 The author in this book tries to give the reader more depth into the Viet Nam War Not only does he cover his time in Viet Nam both as a Grunt and a REMF but he covers some different and little known areas of the War the people of Viet Nam the Civic Actions that took place Plus more of in depth look at what some of our men went through and how it has affected the Veterans He tells how some of the political decisions cost the US casualties and closes with who lost the War

Desexualization in American Life Charles Winick, 2018-10-08 Originally published as The New People this classic volume examines the great changes in popular culture that unfolded in the 1960s with major steps toward political racial gender and social empowerment The popular culture of the time expressed a series of themes that have become if not more significant then certainly more visible in the 1990s We are now entering the third generation of Americans who are living out the themes that are traced in this book The author sees a depolarization a neutering in content and key people in the popular arts Some of these trends result from technological changes and others reflect what is happening in the psychosocial interior of the family as well as larger economic movements Winick believes that in such wide ranging features of our society as sports furniture and architecture the expression of an epoch can be identified Clothing conveys the imbalance and ambiguity that reflect larger social forces and that have been identified more recently by Jacques Lacan as so important in modern life Desexualization in American Life is remarkably prescient and accurate in identifying key trends that affect us today and will continue to do so for the remainder of the decade

My Dying Breath Ben Reed, 2004-08-01 Based on the author's own experiences in Vietnam this novel is dynamic and poignant detailing the rugged journey from free spirited youth to the rewarding fulfillment of honor courage and commitment in the United States Marine Corps Leatherneck magazine

Race-Baiter Eric Deggans, 2012-10-30 Gone is the era of Edward R Murrow and Walter Cronkite when news programs fought to gain the trust and respect of a wide spectrum of American viewers Today the fastest growing news programs and media platforms are fighting hard for increasingly narrow segments of the public and playing on old prejudices and deep rooted fears coloring the conversation in the blogosphere and the cable news chatter to distract from the true issues at stake Using the same tactics once used to mobilize political parties and committed voters they send their fans coded messages and demonize opposing groups in the process securing valuable audience share and website traffic Race baiter is a term born out of this tumultuous climate coined by the conservative media to describe a person who uses racial tensions to arouse the passion and ire of a particular demographic Even as the election of the first black president forces us all to reevaluate how we think about race gender culture and class lines some areas of modern media are working hard to push the same old buttons of conflict and division for new purposes In Race Baiter veteran journalist and media critic Eric Deggans dissects the powerful ways modern media feeds fears prejudices and hate while also tracing the history of the word and its consequences intended or otherwise All Music Guide Vladimir Bogdanov, Chris Woodstra, Stephen Thomas Erlewine, 2001-11 Arranged in sixteen musical categories provides entries for twenty thousand releases from four thousand artists and includes a history of each musical genre Moon River and Me Andy Williams, 2009-10-13 A remarkable memoir by one of the most popular and beloved entertainers of the twentieth century When in the mid 1950s Andy Williams reached a low point in his career singing in dives to ever smaller audiences the young man from Wall Lake Iowa had no inkling of the success he would one day achieve Before being declared a national treasure by President Ronald Reagan Williams would chart eighteen gold and three platinum albums headline at Caesars Palace in Las Vegas for more than twenty years and host an enormously popular weekly television variety show whose Christmas specials still occupy a tender spot in every baby boomer s heart Williams knew everybody who was anybody during his seven remarkable decades in show business including Judy Garland John Huston Jack Lemmon John Lennon Elton John Frank Sinatra Elvis and Barbra Streisand among others and was a close friend of Bobby Kennedy for many years and he shares memories of them all in Moon River and Me His millions of fans guarantee a huge audience for the autobiography of the plush baritone who at the age of eighty one still draws thousands of fans to his Moon River Theater in Branson Missouri
