Term Paper Gun Control:

The Second Amendment and Gun Control Laws as a Subject of Debate Lisa Schreinemacher, 2019-08-26 Seminar paper from the year 2019 in the subject American Studies Culture and Applied Geography grade 1.7 University of Bonn language English abstract This study is concerned with the historical development of the Second Amendment and how it is interpreted today In doing so John Vile's A Companion to the United States Constitution and its Amendments and Adam Winkler's Gun Fight have been consulted to provide background information on the history of the Second Amendment Due to the fact that this term paper also deals with current statistics on gun control laws it also relied on online research and online publications Firstly there will be a chapter that deals with the original intent of the founding fathers who framed the Second Amendment to the United States Constitution It will provide an historical overview of the creation of the Second Amendment and what led to its inclusion into the Bill of Rights It further tries to explain the founder's interpretation of the Second Amendment with regards to the militia The third chapter will focus on the question of how the National Rifle Association was able to rewrite the Second Amendment in order to gain more profit and get support for gun rights The chapter will present the approach taken by the NRA that resulted in a new interpretation of the Second Amendment and established the perception of an individual right to possess firearms within American society It will take into account the Supreme Court cases of United States v Miller of 1939 and District of Columbia v Heller of 2008 that ultimately guaranteed an individual's right to own firearms without any connection to a militia Another chapter will focus on gun control laws and provide a comparison between the United States and other developed countries Furthermore this chapter will give an insight into the perception of the Second Amendment within American society and discusses current gun control policies Finally the last paragraph of this term paper will be a conclusion which sums up the results achieved and gives an outlook for future research on the Second Amendment and gun control laws

Gun Control in Context Suzanna Fay, 2024-05-09 This book approaches the gun control debate by asking what it takes to achieve acceptance of and compliance with gun control regulations in a community thought to be opposed and resistant It does this by centring this question on the experience of gun dealers who occupy a dual role in the compliance process subject to its regulations yet central to the application of all regulatory processes The findings are surprising in that they demonstrate more support for gun control than opposition among this group more willingness to cooperate with authorities than resistance and more possibility for setting the tone for support with the wider gun owning community This book considers how policy makers in the USA can capitalise on these overtones of collaboration and concern for public safety and learn from the successes and mistakes of the Australian gun control experience Gun Control in Context is essential reading for all those engaged across the broad spectrum of the gun control debate and offers a grounded and reasoned approach to the challenges of public policy It will be of interest to criminologists legal scholars and political scientists alike

The Function of Collective Identity

in the "Moms Demand Action" Movement Alexandra Dorn, 2017-03-28 Research Paper undergraduate from the year 2016 in the subject American Studies Culture and Applied Geography grade 17 University of Bonn language English abstract The aim of this term paper is to demonstrate the important role that collective identity formation has played for Moms Demand Action in tackling the issue of gun control Therefore the key research question underlying this term paper is what is the function of collective identity in the Moms Demand Action movement The killing of 20 school children by a gunman in Newtown Connecticut on December 14 2012 brought home the issue of gun related violence to many Americans The event sparked the emergence of Moms Demand Action a grass root movement for stricter gun laws initiated by Shannon Watts mother of five children The goal of Moms Demand Action is to draw public attention to the issue of gun violence and to promote legislative solutions to the problem The group does this by redefining the issue of gun control as an issue that lies within the responsibility of mothers to protect their children from harm
