Wharton, 2020-10-22 Danyers afterwards liked to fancy that he had recognized Mrs Anerton at once but that of course was absurd since he had seen no portrait of her she affected a strict anonymity refusing even her photograph to the most privileged and from Mrs Memorall whom he revered and cultivated as her friend he had extracted but the one impressionist phrase Oh well she s like one of those old prints where the lines have the value of color He was almost certain at all events that he had been thinking of Mrs Anerton as he sat over his breakfast in the empty hotel restaurant and that looking up on the approach of the lady who seated herself at the table near the window he had said to himself That might be she Ever since his Harvard days he was still young enough to think of them as immensely remote Danyers had dreamed of Mrs Anerton the Silvia of Vincent Rendle s immortal sonnet cycle the Mrs A of the Life and Letters Her name was enshrined in some of the noblest English verse of the nineteenth century and of all past or future centuries as Danyers from the stand point of a maturer judgment still believed The first reading of certain poems of the Antinous the Pia Tolomei the Sonnets to Silvia had been epochs in Danyers s growth and the verse seemed to gain in mellowness in amplitude in meaning as one brought to its interpretation more experience of life a finer emotional sense Where in his boyhood he had felt only the perfect the almost austere beauty of form the subtle interplay of vowel sounds the rush and fulness of lyric emotion he now thrilled to the close packed significance of each line the allusiveness of each word his imagination lured hither and thither on fresh trails of thought and perpetually spurred by the sense that beyond what he had already discovered more marvellous regions lay waiting to be explored Danyers had written at college the prize essay on Rendle s poetry it chanced to be the moment of the great man s death he had fashioned the fugitive verse of his own storm and stress period on the forms which Rendle had first given to English metre and when two years later the Life and Letters appeared and the Silvia of the sonnets took substance as Mrs A he had included in his worship of Rendle the woman who had inspired not only such divine verse but such playful tender incomparable prose The Greater Inclination ,2020-04-29 The Greater Inclination consists of 8 works 7 works of short fiction and one two act play It is a somewhat diverse collection with several stories which touch on aspects of human relationships and interactions a very dark story which delves into the psyche and a light and humorous story included as well
